Le Roman De Lolympia Essais:

On Translating French Literature and Film Geoffrey T. Harris, 2025-02-10 This volume is of particular relevance to literary and filmic translators to translation theorists and to anyone with an interest in translation as an art Throughout the majority of essays in the volume translation is projected as a complex creative task and not as an exercise in simply re encoding the meaning of a source text The received superiority of the original is ultimately questioned here The customary binary divide between original and translation or copy and between author and translator is forcefully challenged as cinematic and literary translation is presented as an essentially creative process Whether highlighting specific author related problems or whether focusing on the broader issues of the ethics of translation of cultural transmissibility or of obsolescence the general thrust of these essays seeks to demonstrate the authorial credentials of the translator Despite the cogent counter arguments advanced by a minority of the contributors the dominant discourse here is one which replaces the stereotypical virtually anonymous translator with a high profile creative figure
