Examination Questions for Certificates of Competency as Mine Inspector, Mine Foreman, Mine Manager, Fireboss, Hoisting Engineer, Etc. as Given by the State Examining Boards ,1907 Examination Questions for Certificates of Competency as Mine Inspector, Mine Foreman, Mine Manager, Fire-boss, Hoisting Engineer, Etc ,1914 Teacher Performance Assessment and Accountability Reforms Julie H. Carter,Hilary A. Lochte,2016-12-20 Winner of the 2017 AESA Critic s Choice Book Award This book provides multiple perspectives on the dual struggle that teacher educators currently face as they make sense of edTPA while preparing their pre service teachers for this high stakes teacher exam The adoption of nationalized teacher performance exams has raised concerns about the influence of corporate interests in teacher education the objectivity of nationalized teaching standards and ultimately the overarching political and economic interests shaping the process format and nature of assessment itself Through an arc of scholarship from various perspectives this book explores a range of questions about the goals and interests at work in the roll out of the edTPA assessment and gives voice to those most affected by these policy changes teacher educators and teacher education students Rhetoric, Social Value and the Arts Charlotte Bonham-Carter,Nicola Mann,2017-07-18 The book reveals how the social value of art may have one meaning for a policy maker another for a museum and still yet another for an artist and it is therefore in the interaction between these agents that we learn the most about the importance of rhetoric and interpretation As a trajectory in art history socially engaged art has a long and established history However in recent years or since the social turn that occurred in the 1990s the rhetoric surrounding the social value of art has been assimilated by cultural policy makers and museums Interdisciplinary in its approach and bringing together contributions from artists curators and academics the volume explores rhetoric social value and the arts within different social political and cultural contexts The Railway Times ,1877

Hybrid and Internationalised Criminal Tribunals Sarah Williams,2012-04-02 In recent years a number of criminal tribunals have been established to investigate prosecute and try individuals accused of serious violations of international humanitarian law and international human rights law These tribunals have been described as hybrid or internationalised tribunals as their structure and applicable law consist of both international and national elements Six such tribunals are currently in operation the Special Court for Sierra Leone the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia the International Judges and Prosecutors Programme in Kosovo the War Crimes Chamber for Bosnia and Herzegovina the Iraqi High Tribunal and the Special Tribunal for Lebanon The Special Panels for Serious Crimes in East Timor suspended operation in May 2005 although there continues to be some international involvement in investigation and prosecution of serious crimes Suggestions have also been made that this model of tribunal would be appropriate for the prosecution of atrocities committed in among others Burundi the Sudan the Democratic Republic of Congo Kenya and Liberia as well as for a wider range of international crimes most recently piracy The key aims of this book are to place the model of hybrid and internationalised tribunals in the context of other mechanisms to try international crimes to examine the increasing demand for the establishment of hybrid and internationalised judicial institutions and the factors driving such demand to define the category of hybrid and internationalised tribunals by examining the key features of the existing and proposed hybrid or internationalised tribunals as well as the features of those institutions with international elements that are generally excluded from this category to determine the legal and jurisdictional bases of existing hybrid and internationalised tribunals to analyse how the legal and jurisdictional basis of a tribunal affects other issues such as the applicable law the application of amnesties and immunities and the relationship of the tribunal with the host state third states national courts and other international criminal tribunals The book concentrates on the definitional legal and jurisdictional aspects of hybrid and internationalised criminal tribunals as this has been the subject of some confusion in arguments before the tribunals and in the judgments of the tribunals In its concluding section the book examines the future role of internationalised and hybrid criminal tribunals particularly in light of the establishment of the ICC and the potential use of such tribunals in other contexts It also assesses how hybrid and internationalised tribunals fit into a multi layered framework of international criminal law and transitional justice
