Monash South Africa 2014 Intake:

Climate Change and Global Development Tiago Sequeira, Liliana Reis, 2019-05-08 This book presents new research related to climate change policies and effects. It discusses the implications of climate change on issues pertaining to international relations and economic development and the question of how climate change could jeopardize the international system as we have known it until today. It aims to provide an empirical basis and epistemological framework to discuss the effects of climate change on economic growth, social development and welfare as a global phenomenon influenced by policies carried out transnationally and by national governments. Case studies from around the globe are presented. Handbook on Participatory Action Research and Community Development Stoecker, Randy, Falcón, Adrienne, 2022-04-08 This Handbook is a critical resource for carefully considering the possibilities and challenges of strategically integrating participatory action research (PAR) and community development (CD). Utilizing practical examples from diverse contexts across five continents, it looks at how communities are empowering themselves and bringing about systemic change. COVID-19 and the Evolving Business Environment in Asia Andrei O. J. Kwok, Motoki Watabe, Sharon G.M. Koh, 2022-06-30 This book brings together valuable insights about the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the business environment from an Asian perspective. While some businesses in Asia have been swift to embrace the new normal, others have found the disruption to the traditional way of doing business challenging. Businesses are striving to respond, adapt and thrive under the shadow of the unprecedented upheaval to the business environment that has forced them to rethink their strategies, processes and operating models. There seems to be a consensus among business scholars and stakeholders that the continuous embrace of change and transformation of business models will assist businesses to sustain a long-term competitive advantage. The chapters in this book explore shifts in business innovation and strategies linked to the new normal of doing business during the pandemic, bringing to light issues, challenges and opportunities that firms can expect to face in their need to ensure sustainability post-pandemic and beyond. Skills for Midwifery Practice Australian & New Zealand Edition Sally-Ann De-Vitry Smith, Sara Bayes, 2022-02-28 This text provides clear, easy-to-read guidance on more than 110 skills for midwifery students and midwives seeking to update their practice. Underpinned with the most recent evidence-based practice and research, the second edition walks the reader through general and basic skills in a sequential and logical manner, following a woman's journey through pregnancy, labour and birth, and postnatal care. With a focus on the performance of midwifery skills rather than on the theory of midwifery practice, Skills for Midwifery Practice Australia and New Zealand 2nd edition is an indispensable text to which students will return to again and again. Endorsed by the Australian College of Midwives, it provides step-by-step instructions for each skill, images and diagrams to aid understanding, a woman-centred approach and cultural considerations throughout. Models of midwifery care, Continuity of Care and Lead Maternity Carer's Model, Australian/NZ specific guidelines, policies, statistics, terminology and medication administration guidelines.

Environmental Sustainability, Growth Trajectory and Gender Chandrima Chakraborty, Dipyaman Pal, 2022-06-09

Environmental Sustainability Growth Trajectory and Gender focuses on three major issues affecting developing economies environmental sustainability growth trajectory and gender Awareness is increased through an exploration of policies and actions that will enhance gender equality and sustainable development Will China's demographic transition exacerbate its income inequality? Wang, Xinxin, Chen, Kevin Z., Robinson, Sherman, Huang, Zuhui, 2016-09-29 Demographic transition due to population aging is an emerging trend throughout the developing world and it is especially acute in China which has undergone demographic transition more rapidly than have most industrial economies This paper quantifies the distributional effects in the context of demographic transition using an integrated recursive dynamic computable general equilibrium model with top down behavioral microsimulation The results of the poverty and inequality index indicate that population aging has a negative impact on the reduction of poverty while its impact is positive with regard to equality In addition elderly rural households are experiencing the most serious poverty and their inequality problems compared with other household groups and within group inequality worsens with demographic transition These findings not only advance the previous literature but also deserve particular attention from Chinese policy makers Yearbook of International Organizations 2013-2014 (Volume 3) Union Of International Associations, Union of International Associations, 2013-08-09 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here In addition to the history aims and activities of international organizations with their events publications and contact details the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations biographies of key people involved and extensive statistical data Volume 3 allows readers to locate organizations by subjects or by fields of activity and specialization and includes an index to Volumes 1 through 3 Entertaining Angels Michael J. H. Godfrey, 2016-11-11 Hebrews is a sermon and a providentially sermon for our age This ancient text speaks to a Christ community descending into an abyss of ennui losing coordinates of faith and sliding through a back door or nonchalance With glimpses across the globe and through history this book attempts to extrapolate meaning for today from a sometimes difficult first century text Higher Education in Ethiopia Tebeje Molla, 2018-01-18 This book focuses on higher education in Ethiopia analysing persisting inequalities and policy responses against the backdrop of the extensive expansion and reform that the system has experienced in recent years Drawing on empirical data generated through interviews policy reviews and focus group discussions it explicates factors of structural inequality ranging from neoliberal policy orientations to repressive gender culture and geo political peripherality In a departure from conventional studies that consider policy a response to social problems the book takes a critical perspective to show the constitutive role of policy and explains how the representation of the problem of social inequality undermines equity policy outcomes in Ethiopian higher education Not only does the book problematise the framing of the problem of inequality in the system it also outlines strategies for designing transformative equity instruments In explaining structural factors of inequality and equity provisions the book productively combines sociological concepts with historical accounts and political economy insights Given the increased economic optimism associated with higher education in sub Saharan Africa and the neoliberal ideals underpinning much of the restructuring of the system in the region this is a timely and important contribution that sheds light on the social justice implications and consequences of such changes It offers fresh accounts of largely neglected qualitative cases of inequality making it a valuable read for students and researchers in the areas of Ethiopian education policy studies international and comparative education and international development

Marketization Himadri Roy Chaudhuri, Russell W. Belk, 2020-05-13 This book critically examines marketization a phenomenon by which market processes are institutionalized and marketing increasingly pervades all areas of our everyday life It presents a number of theories frameworks and empirical studies highlighting how the phenomenon of marketization affects the 21st century consumer The book also contests the traditional understanding of markets offering a more comprehensive treatment of marketization and a fresh perspective on the dynamics of markets and the institutions that control everyday consumption practices This book is an ideal resource for academics reflective practitioners and policy makers interested in formulating appropriate change strategies in the face of the globalization that affects emerging markets so profoundly This well crafted research book is a valuable addition to the sparse literature on theories of marketization The authors refigure the existing theories more broadly and present compelling evidence and insights into market phenomenon such as marginality alternative market forms and consumer identity
