Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies: A-J Gaetana Marrone,2007 Publisher description La Storia Elsa Morante,1987 Trauma Narratives in Italian and Transnational Women's Writing Tiziana de Rogatis,Katrin Wehling-Giorgi ,2022-12-14 This edited volume is the first to propose new readings of Italian and transnational female authored texts through the lens of Trauma Studies Illuminating a space that has so far been left in the shadows Trauma Narratives in Italian and Transnational Women s Writing provides new insights into how the trope of trauma shapes the narrative temporal and linguistic dimension of these works The various contributions delineate a landscape of female authored Italian and transnational trauma narratives and their complex textual negotiation of suffering and pathos from the twentieth century to the present day These zones of trauma engender a new aesthetics and a new reading of history and cultural memory as an articulation of female creativity and resistance against a dominant cultural and social order

Resistance, Heroism, Loss Thomas Cragin,Laura A. Salsini,2018-02-20 In no other country in Europe has national identity been so closely bound to memories of the war Italy s Republic was born of World War II its constitution defined by anti Fascism its parties self identified with national Resistance Because of their importance to the nation s identity the nature and meaning of the war have been the focus of great contention from 1943 to the present day In recent years Italy has taken on a national evaluation of the more troubling and contested aspects of its role in the war including its support of Fascism and collaboration after 1943 its treatment of Jews and other minorities deep national divisions that created a civil war between 1943 and 1945 and the centrality of war myth to lingering postwar problems Scholars of Italian history literature and cinema play a fundamental role in this appraisal and this volume of essays attests to the importance of film and literature to the ways in which changing political social and cultural imperatives have altered the war s memory These articles expand our understanding of the shifting phases in national memory by highlighting significant features of each era s portrayal of the war Contributions come from eight scholars who capture the full variety of disciplinary and sub disciplinary approaches that are current today including film genre studies cultural history gender studies Holocaust studies and the very new fields of emotion studies shame theory and environmental studies Their innovative application of questions and methods that speak to important new subfields in Italian Studies make this volume an invaluable tool for scholars and their students

Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies Gaetana Marrone,Paolo Puppa,2006-12-26 The Encyclopedia of Italian Literary Studies is a two volume reference book containing some 600 entries on all aspects of Italian literary culture It includes analytical essays on authors and works from the most important figures of Italian literature to little known authors and works that are influential to the field The Encyclopedia is distinguished by substantial articles on critics themes genres schools historical surveys and other topics related to the overall subject of Italian literary studies The Encyclopedia also includes writers and subjects of contemporary interest such as those relating to journalism film media children s literature food and vernacular literatures Entries consist of an essay on the topic and a bibliographic portion listing works for further reading and in the case of entries on individuals a brief biographical paragraph and list of works by the person It will be useful to people without specialized knowledge of Italian literature as well as to scholars Italian history & culture ,1998 The Theme of Childhood in Elsa Morante Grace Zlobnicki Kalay,1996 History Elsa Morante,2015-02-24 History was written nearly thirty years after Elsa Morante and Alberto Moravia spent a year in hiding among remote farming villages in the mountains south of Rome There she witnessed the full impact of the war and first formed the ambition to write an account of what history the great political events driven by men of power wealth and ambition does when it reaches the realm of ordinary people struggling for life and bread The central character in this powerful and unforgiving novel is Ida Mancuso a schoolteacher whose husband has died and whose feckless teenage son treats the war as his playground A German soldier on his way to North Africa rapes her falls in love with her and leaves her pregnant with a boy whose survival becomes Ida s passion Around these two other characters come and go each caught up by the war which is like a river in flood We catch glimpses of bombing raids street crimes a cattle car from which human cries emerge an Italian soldier succumbing to frostbite on the Russian front the dumb endurance of peasants who have lived their whole lives with nothing and now must get by with less than nothing La Storie Elsa Morante,1987-01-01 Italian Women's Writing 1860-1994 Sharon Wood,1995 This book examines women s writing in Italy from Unification to the present day exploring the lives and works of women writers within the context of Italian history culture and politics The changing face of Italian social and political life since Unification has greatly affected the position of women in Italy This work discusses the relation between the changing role of women over this period their struggle for social and political emancipation and equality and the search by women writers for a personal and authentic literary voice Wood s other publications include Woman as Object Narrative and Gender in the Work of Alberto Moravia 1990 The series provides a survey country by country of women s writing from the beginnings of the major struggle for emancipation up to the present day While the main emphasis is on literature the social political and cultural development of each country provides a context for understanding the position and preoccupations of women writers Modern critical currents are also taken into account in relating feminist criticism to recent critical theory Other volumes in this series include Norwegian Women s Writing 1850 1990 and the forthcoming Swedish Women s Writing 1850 1990 Theory and Practice of Feminist Literary Criticism Gabriela Mora,Karen S. Van Hooft,1982 Breaking through established categories and time frames of literary history this is trilingual collection of essays 12 English 5 Spanish and 1 French The essays are grouped in three categories discussions of feminist literary theory followed by its application to specific works by female and then by male writers "E la Storia Continua. . . " Amy Christina Di Pasquantonio,1998 Italian Novelists Since World War II, 1945-1965 Augustus Pallotta,1997 Essays on novelists who conveyed through various modes of narration and contrasting viewpoints the social and political realities in which they lived identifying the war as the cause of those realities Discusses how the fall of Fascism allowed writers and film makers freedom of expression but also challenged them with the new realities of national life During this period Neorealism was first widely applied to the novel as well as cinema Italian Novelists of the Twentieth Century ,1997 Woman as the "other" Katja Liimatta,2000

Romance Languages Annual ,1997 Women's Writing in Western Europe Adalgisa Giorgio,Julia Waters,2007 Women TM s writing has in recent decades been one of the most exciting and productive areas of literary creativity and critical analysis Thirty years on from the initial spectacular blossoming of women TM s writing and from pioneering critical projects to re construct a female literary tradition Women TM s Writing in Western Europe Gender Generation and Legacy is the first study to investigate the legacy of this earlier generation of writers texts and theories for contemporary women writers from across western Europe This important and timely book brings together original analyses by different generations of critics from around the globe from internationally renowned feminist scholars to promising doctoral students Their sophisticated studies uncover a complex web of explicit and implicit intertextual links between contemporary writers and such iconic figures as Aleramo Beauvoir Colette Cixous Duras Irigaray Kristeva Morante Morgner Wolf and Woolf so attesting to the existence of a truly international women TM s culture across ever more fluid national borders Women TM s Writing in Western Europe is a major intervention in the field of feminist literary criticism which offers new comparative understandings of such key theoretical concepts as intertextuality intergenerational relations gender identity and legacy oeCovering an enormous range of writers and national traditions Women TM s Writing in Western Europe Gender Generation and Legacy attests to the vibrancy and the currency of feminist criticism and theory in the new Europe These essays give us new paradigms to think and read with in the future Professor Marianne Hirsch Columbia University New York oeThirty years after the creative outburst of women TM s writing and feminist theory of the early 1970s can we still speak of a women TM s tradition of writing of gender and generation of the iconic role of the mother figure This dense and wide ranging collection of essays engages with the dynamics of legacy and conflict of recognition and denial to map out some of the many complex strands and relationships marking the textual relations of women TM s writing across time and geographic boundaries No simple tradition of women TM s writing emerges but the powerful hold exerted by some of the most canonical writers Beauvoir Woolf Cixous Irigaray Kristeva Rich and the evidence of the construction of new relationships between and across texts by women points to a continuing network of transmission in which women TM s texts are enmeshed This is an important collection and a large readership will be grateful for this probing of issues which are at the heart of the reading of women TM s writing Professor Elizabeth Fallaize St John TM s College Oxford The Babel Guide to Italian Fiction (in English Translation) Ray Keenoy,Fiorenza Conte,1995 The Babel guide has 150 original reviews of books by Italian authors available in English Each review provides a kind of trailer for the work with an extract as a taster It includes a database of

Italian fiction translated into English since 1945 with original titles and current prices This is the first in a series of illustrated guides written in a lively and accessible style It aims to provide potential readers with an idea of whether a book will suit their own tastes

Reference Guide to World Literature Lesley Henderson, Sarah M. Hall, 1995 Overviews of writers and works from the ancient Greeks through the 20th century written by subject experts Each author entry provides a detailed overview of the writer's life and works Work entries cover a particular piece of world literature in detail
