Learning to be Human: The Educational Legacy of John Macmurray Michael Fielding, 2012 Learning to be Human: The Educational Legacy of John MacMurray Michael Fielding, 2016-04-14 The educational writings of John Macmurray one of the finest 20th century philosophers of his generation have a special relevance for us today In similar circumstances of international crisis he argued for the central importance of education addressing fundamental issues of human purpose how we lead good lives together the emphasis on wisdom rather than knowledge alone the advancement of a truly democratic culture and the overriding importance of community in human flourishing This remarkable collection of articles from leading international scholars includes the hitherto unpublished John Macmurray lecture Learning to be Human and brings together invited contributions from a range of fields and disciplines e g philosophy of education moral philosophy care ethics history of education theology religious education future studies and learning technologies and a number of countries across the world e g Australia the UK and the USA Countering overemphasis on technique and its typical separation from wider human purposes emblematic of much of our current malaise this book asks what it might mean to take the education of persons seriously and how such a perspective helps us to form judgments about the nature and worth of contemporary education policy and practice This book was originally published as a special issue of the Oxford Review of Education Special Issue ,2012 Learning to Be Human Michael Fielding, 2020-12-18 The educational writings of John Macmurray one of the finest 20th century philosophers of his generation have a special relevance for us today In similar circumstances of international crisis he argued for the central importance of education addressing fundamental issues of human purpose how we lead good lives together the emphasis on wisdom rather than knowledge alone the advancement of a truly democratic culture and the overriding importance of community in human flourishing This remarkable collection of articles from leading international scholars includes the hitherto unpublished John Macmurray lecture Learning to be Human and brings together invited contributions from a range of fields and disciplines e g philosophy of education moral philosophy care ethics history of education theology religious education future studies and learning technologies and a number of countries across the world e g Australia the UK and the USA Countering overemphasis on technique and its typical separation from wider human purposes emblematic of much of our current malaise this book asks what it might mean to take the education of persons seriously and how such a perspective helps us to form judgments about the nature and worth of contemporary education policy and practice This book was originally published as a special issue of the Oxford Review of Education Music Education on the Verge Judy Lewis, Andrea Maas, 2022-08-08 In March 2020 the COVID 19 pandemic swept the world causing physical emotional economic and social upheaval in every part of the globe It also catalyzed a renewed interrogation by music education faculty in higher education of philosophies and practices that had long gone unexamined Music Education on the Verge Stories of Pandemic Teaching and Transformative Change is a collection of narratives by music teacher educators describing how they responded to the disruption of the COVID 19 pandemic with and for their students Through these stories the authors step back and reflect on the events challenges triumphs and innovations discovered as they prepared the next generation of music educators in this time of crisis They tell stories of reexamining old frameworks discovering new affordances of technologies humanizing pedagogy deepening culturally responsive and sustaining experiences and creating space for democratic practices Each chapter offers examples of innovative music pedagogy that can be adapted and applied by music educators and music teacher educators with their students Collectively they paint a picture of possibilities challenging music teacher educators and educators in all fields to seek out openings and pursue pedagogies of change as we move forward into a post pandemic world Thinking Philosophically about Education Richard Pring, 2018-12-07 In the World Library of Educationalists series international experts themselves compile career long collections of what they judge to be their finest pieces extracts from books key articles salient research findings major theoretical and practical contributions so the world can read them in a single manageable volume Readers will be able to follow the themes and strands and see how their work contributes to the development of the field Thinking Philosophically about Education highlights several key writings from Richard Pring s international career in education providing a historical perspective in relation to current debates about philosophy of education in the UK and internationally drawing attention to issues of current concern The text explores key themes such as critical realism teachers as researchers and a way forward for policy through carefully selected examples from Richard Pring s writings A short introduction is provided for each chapter to help readers to understand the significance of what is presented and how this relates to other chapters in the book Comprehensible and articulate this selection displays the knowledge and rigor that has made Richard Pring one of the world s most respected and eminent scholars of the field of philosophy and education Comprising Richard Pring s personal selection of what he considers to be his influential writing from book chapters and journal articles throughout his career it will be of interest to all followers of his work and any reader interested in the development of philosophy and education in the UK and internationally Renewing the Self Benjamin J. Wood, 2017-05-11 Over the last decade the UK has witnessed a stunning resurgence of religious engagement in both politics and civil society From the social pluralism of New Labour to the rise of post liberalism the recovery of religious sensibilities in areas like education and welfare continues to have a significant effect on the content of political debate on both the Right and Left What unites these diverse projects is an effort to recover a neglected form of selfhood Less acquisitive more relational this vision of human identity has led politicians and policy makers to reject avaricious and atomist accounts of the self in favour of richer accounts of citizenship and common life What do these latter models mean for citizens and communities This book analyses the roots significance and future of these developments through the lens of contemporary Christian communities By drawing on disciplines as diverse as philosophy theology history economics and political theory Renewing the Self reflects on the prospects and challenges of this rich self in a globalised and rapidly changing world Inspiring Purpose in High-Performance Schooling Mary Anne Heng, 2024-02-27 Is the world better off because your school is in it Do you believe schooling has a higher purpose In Inspiring Purpose in High Performance Schooling Mary Anne Heng questions modern day schooling with its dominant focus on what is efficient and effective in good education and how this is measured This book critically analyses what really matters in high performance schooling contexts using Singapore as an example and makes a case for putting purpose at the heart of teaching Going beyond good education built on evidence based and reflective practice and the instrumental questions of the What and How of education she argues for a view of education as transformation with a deeper purpose that probes the Why Using Singapore as a case example and Israel as a counterpoint she moves past the rhetoric of developing passion curiosity creativity and other 21st century competencies in high performance schooling to uncover children s real experiences of school Based on research using multiple sources she analyses surveys with Singapore and Israeli adolescents and in depth individual student interviews as well as provides insights from rich discussions and extended field testing with practicing teachers and educational leaders to inform an urgent call for a new vision in education for the future of education and society one that celebrates achievement with larger purpose for the wider world A valuable academic and resource text for teachers school leaders policymakers and graduate students in education programmes as well as education researchers in the fields of educational leadership and change curriculum teaching and learning and youth purpose Education in the Age of Misinformation Lana Parker, 2023-06-23 This edited volume examines the implications of misinformation and youth digital life in a new information environment This new information environment is characterized by high levels of user engagement hidden algorithmic manipulations and information abundance including misinformation and disinformation While misinformation and disinformation in the post truth era have been previously investigated this edited volume offers a distinctive educational focus that scholars have not yet addressed Chapters contribute to the ongoing discussion of the role of education in democracies while uniquely contextualizing the problem of misinformation as a pedagogical opportunity Contributions from across the globe answer the question of how education might respond to the changing information environment through engagements with educational philosophy democracy and everyday practices of teaching and learning The book adds to a growing body of work exploring what it means to engage in responsive rather than reactive or stagnant pedagogy Immoral Education Simon Gibbs, 2018-04-09 This book brings together for the first time a synthesis of philosophical and psychological material to examine the basis for the professional identity that teachers might believe in and the effects of misunderstanding and mistreating these beliefs By critically synthesising findings from a range of sources the book provides a rationale that argues an essential ingredient of good education is the quality of teachers who have a reaffirmed sense of creativity autonomy and agency The book presents a role for educational psychology in informing educational and inclusive processes filling a longstanding need for a text that delineates the way psychological phenomena underpin education Beginning by considering notions of self and identity the book explores the relationship between our identity as defined by ourselves but also as defined by others in the social and professional groups we may or may not be considered as being part of It looks critically at how the erosion of the professional identity of teachers has affected education and considers the morality of othering others and its damaging effect on teachers and young people Gibbs reflects on the organisational structure and leadership of schools the psychology of these institutions and the barriers that need to be overcome in order to promote greater inclusivity within them Offering a careful and insightful look at the psychology behind education and teaching this is an essential read for teacher educators researchers and academics in the field of education and will appeal to policy makers teachers and educational psychologists Flip The System UK: A Teachers' Manifesto Lucy Rycroft-Smith, Jean-Louis Dutaut, 2017-11-27 How did we let teacher burn out happen and what can we do about it before it is too late This brave and disruptive book accurately defines the problems of low teacher morale and offers systemic future proof and realistic solutions to bringing hope energy and joy back to the profession The simple answer is staring us in the face increase teacher agency Our rallying cry our profession needs a return to values of humanity pride and professionalism From research literacy to a collective voice better CPD to smarter accountability contributors to this book demonstrate the huge scope for increased teacher influence at every level of the education sector Education voices including Sam Twiselton Alison Peacock David Weston and Andy Hargreaves supported by a broad range of academics and policy makers vouch for increased teacher agency and stronger more powerful networks as a means of improving practice combatting teacher disillusionment and radically improving UK education This text offers an exciting and hopeful perspective on education urging teachers to work together to flip the system and challenging policy makers to help or get out of the way Chapters have been contributed by Tom Bennett Peter Ford Jonathan Firth David Weston David Williams Zeba Clarke Julie Smith Dr Robert Loe Jeremy Pattle Debra Kidd Steven Watson Ross Morrison McGill George Gilchrist Howard Stevenson Professor Dame Alison Peacock d Reen Struthers Phil Wood Rae Snape Simon Gibbs Ross Hall Jackie Ward Simon Knight David Frost Sheila Ball Sarah Lightfoot Andy Hargreaves Darren Macey Gary Farrell Julian Critchley Tony Gallagher Gareth Alcott Sam Twiselton Jelmer Evers Alma Harris Michelle Jones Natalie Scott Deborah M Netolicky Jon Andrews Cameron Paterson Per Kornhall Joe Hallgarten Tom Beresford and Sara Hjelm Enterprise ,1959 Comprehensive Dissertation Index ,1989 Cue ,1966 Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 Choice ,2001 The New Statesman and Nation ,1943 Paperbound Books in Print ,1991 Small Press Record of Books in Print Len Fulton,1993 Books in Print Supplement ,1994
