With detailed commentary on each member's reflections and solo careers post-breakup, the book provides insight into how Let It Be has been viewed by the band and its evolving place in music history. From the rooftop concert that symbolized the end of an era to the modern reassessment fueled by Peter Jackson's Get Back documentary, this book reconsiders Let It Be not just as an ending but as a complex emotional snapshot of a band in transition still creating timeless music despite internal strife.
