Behavioral Science & Policy: Volume 2, Issue 1 Craig Fox, Sim B. Sitkin, 2016-11-22 The success of nearly all public and private sector policies hinges on the behavior of individuals groups and organizations Today such behaviors are better understood than ever thanks to a growing body of practical behavioral science research However policymakers often are unaware of behavioral science findings that may help them craft and execute more effective and efficient policies The pages of this new journal will become a meeting ground a place where scientists and non scientists can encounter clearly described behavioral research that can be put into action By design the scope of BSP is broad with topics spanning health care financial decisionmaking energy and the environment education and culture justice and ethics and work place practices Contributions will be made by researchers with expertise in psychology sociology law behavioral economics organization science decision science and marketing The journal is a key offering of the Behavioral Science Policy Association in partnership with the Brookings Institution The mission of BSPA is to foster dialog between social scientists policymakers and other practitioners in order to promote the application of rigorous empirical behavioral science in ways that serve the public interest BSPA does not advance a particular agenda or political perspective The first issue s contents follow Behavioral Science Policy vol 2 no 1 Table of Contents Editors Note Spotlight Pre Kindergarten Interventions American Policy on Early Childhood Education Development Many Programs Great Hopes Modest Prospects Ron Haskins Evidence for the Benefits of State Prekindergarten Programs Myth Misrepresentation Dale C Farran Mark W Lipsey Reforming Head Start for the 21st Century A Policy Prescription Sara Mead Ashley LiBetti Mitchel Home Visiting Programs Four Evidence Based Lessons for Policymakers Cynthia Osborne Launching Preschool 2 0 A Road Map to High Quality Public Programs at Scale Christina Weiland A 10 Year Strategy of Increased Coordination Comprehensive Investments in Early Child Development Ajay Chaudry Jane Waldfogel Reimagining Accountability in K 12 Education Brian P Gill Jennifer S Lerner Paul Meosky Featured Topic Healthy Through Habit Interventions for Initiating Maintaining Health Behavioral Change Wendy Wood David Neal Making the Truth Stick the Myths Fade Lessons from Cognitive Psychology Norbert Schwarz Eryn Newman William Leach Editorial Policy Fanon, Frantz, and the Violence of Resistance Zahi Zalloua, 2025-06-26 In a novel pairing of anti colonial theorist Frantz Fanon with Marxist Lacanian philosopher Slavoj Žižek Zahi Zalloua explores the ways both thinkers expose the violence of political structures This inventive exploration advances an anti racist critique describing how ontology operates in a racial matrix to produce some human bodies that count and others deemed not quite or non human that do not For Fanon and Žižek the violence of ontology must be met with another form of violence a revolutionary violence that delegitimizes the logic of the symbolic order and troubles its collective fantasies Whereas Fanon begins his challenge to ontology by exposing its historical linkages to Europe s destructive imperialist procedures before proceeding to stretch Marxism along with psychoanalysis to account for the crushing neo colonial situation Žižek premises his work on the refusal to accept the totality of ontology

Because of these different points of intervention Fanon and i ek together offer a powerful and multifaceted assessment of the liberal anti racist paradigm whose propensity for identity politics and aversion to class struggle silence the cry of the dispossessed and foreclose radical change Avoiding contemporary separatist temptations decoloniality and Afropessimism and breaking with a non violent sentimentalist futurology that announces more of the same Fanon and i ek point in a different direction one that eschews identitarian thought in favor of a collective struggle for freedom and equality
