Lucky Break John Escott, 2019 Images of Incarceration David Wilson, Sean O'Sullivan, 2004 An analysis of the impact of TV on the democratic processes that lead to criminal policy making Everything from The Shawshank Redemption to the TV sit com how public perceptions of serious social issues are often based on superficial misleading and sometimes comfortable accounts

Lucky Break Howard Junker, 1999 In Lucky Break Howard Junker introduces you to nineteen contemporary authors who describe their struggles and good fortune in transforming themselves into writers For some the idea of being a writer seemed to run in the family For others writing was a way of breaking with their families for still others writing was the only way to find their own voice to preserve what is uniquely theirs Collected from the pages of ZYZZYVA the West Coast literary journal these are very personal essays in which nevertheless other writers will discover something of their own stories and journeys Among the authors featured in Lucky Break are Sheila Ballantyne Opal Palmer Adisa Philip Levine Jewelle Gomez Justin Chin David Rains Wallace and Sallie Tisdale Becoming a writer is a mysterious momentous process The writers in this collection suggest that beyond talent and hard work and a lucky break there is more hard work the task of being a writer They offer accounts not of the craft of writing but of the many strands that must be woven together to create an identity as a writer

Stage women, 1900-50 Maggie B. Gale, Kate Dorney, 2019-04-08 This book presents a collection of cutting edge historical and cultural essays in the field of women theatre and performance The chapters explore women's networks of professional practice in the theatre and performance industries between 1900 and 1950 with a focus on women's sense and experience of professional agency in an industry largely controlled by men The book is divided into two sections Female theatre workers in the social and theatrical realm looks at the relationship between women's work on and off stage and autobiography activism technique touring education and the law Women and popular performance focuses on the careers of individual artists once household names including Lily Brayton Ellen Terry radio star Mabel Constanduros and Oscar winning film star Margaret Rutherford An electronic edition of this book is freely available under a Creative Commons CC BY NC ND licence
