M. Butterfly David Henry Hwang, 1993-10-01 David Henry Hwang's beautiful heartrending play featuring an afterword by the author winner of a 1988 Tony Award for Best Play and nominated for the 1989 Pulitzer Prize Based on a true story that stunned the world M Butterfly opens in the cramped prison cell where diplomat Rene Gallimard is being held captive by the French government and by his own illusions In the darkness of his cell he recalls a time when desire seemed to give him wings A time when Song Liling the beautiful Chinese diva touched him with a love as vivid as seductive and as elusive as a butterfly How could he have known then that his ideal woman was in fact a spy for the Chinese government and a man disguised as a woman In a series of flashbacks the diplomat relives the twenty year affair from the temptation to the seduction from its consummation to the scandal that ultimately consumed them both But in the end there remains only one truth Whether or not Gallimard's passion was a flight of fancy it sparked the most vigorous emotions of his life Only in real life could love become so unreal And only in such a dramatic tour de force do we learn how a fantasy can become a man's mistress as well as his jailer M Butterfly is one of the most compelling explosive and slyly humorous dramas ever to light the Broadway stage a work of unrivaled brilliance illuminating the conflict between men and women the differences between East and West racial stereotypes and the shadows we cast around our most cherished illusions M Butterfly remains one of the most influential romantic plays of contemporary literature and in 1993 was made into a film by David Cronenberg starring Jeremy Irons and John Lone

Asian American Playwrights Miles Liu, 2002-05-30 In the late nineteenth century Asian American drama made its debut with the spotlight firmly on the lives and struggles of Asians in North America rather than on the cultures and traditions of the Asian homeland Today Asian American playwrights continue to challenge the limitations of established theatrical conventions and direct popular attention toward issues and experiences that might otherwise be ignored or marginalized While Asian American literature came into full bloom in the last 25 years Asian American drama has yet to receive the kind of critical attention it warrants This reference book serves as a versatile vehicle for exploring the field of Asian American drama from its recorded conception to its present stage Included are alphabetically arranged entries for 52 Asian American dramatists of origins from India Pakistan Vietnam the Philippines Japan Korea and China Each entry includes relevant biographical information that contextualizes the works of a playwright an interpretive description of selected plays that spotlights recurring themes and plots a summary of the playwright's critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary works The entries are written by expert contributors and reflect the ethnic diversity of the Asian American community The volume closes with a selected general bibliography which includes anthologies scholarly studies and periodicals

Ends of Empire Jodi Kim, 2004 Ends of Empire examines Asian American cultural production and its challenge to the dominant understanding of American imperialism Cold War dynamics and race and gender formation Jodi Kim demonstrates the degree to which Asian American literature and film critique the record of U S imperial violence in Asia and provides a glimpse into the imperial and gendered racial logic of the Cold War She unfolds this particularly entangled and enduring episode in the history of U S global hegemony one that contrary to leading interpretations of the Cold War as a simple bipolar rivalry was significantly triangulated in Asia The Asian American works analyzed here constitute a crucial body of what Kim reveals as transnational Cold War compositions which are at once a geopolitical structuring an ideological writing and a cultural imagining Arguing that these works reframe the U S Cold War as a project of gendered racial formation and imperialism as well as a production of knowledge Ends of Empire offers an interdisciplinary investigation into the transnational dimensions of Asian America and its critical relationship to Cold War history

Catalog of Books ,1996 English Studies in Canada ,1995 American Narratives Margaret Crumpton Winter,2007-05-01 American Narratives takes readers back to the turn of the twentieth century to reintroduce four writers of varying ethnic backgrounds whose works were mostly ignored by critics of their day With the skill of a literary detective Molly Crumpton Winter recovers an early multicultural discourse on assimilation and national belonging that has been largely overlooked by literary scholars At the heart of the book are close readings of works by four nearly forgotten artists from 1890 to 1915 the era often termed the age of realism Mary Antin a Jewish American immigrant from Russia Zitkala a a Sioux woman originally from South Dakota Sutton E Griggs an African American from the South and Sui Sin Far a biracial Chinese American female writer who lived on the West Coast Winter s treatment of Antin s The Promised Land serves as an occasion for a reexamination of the concept of assimilation in American literature and the chapter on Zitkala a is the most comprehensive analysis of her narratives to date Winter argues persuasively that Griggs should have long been a more visible presence in American literary history and the exploration of Sui Sin Far reveals her to be the embodiment of the varied and unpredictable ways that diversity of cultures came together in America In American Narratives Winter maintains that the writings of these four rediscovered authors with their emphasis on issues of ethnicity identity and nationality fit squarely in the American realist tradition She also establishes a multiethnic dialogue among these writers demonstrating ways in which cultural identity and national belonging are persistently contested in this literature Word and Action in Drama Günter Ahrends,1994

Image Into Identity Michael Wintle,2006 The pervading theme of this book is the construction and allocation of identity especially through images and imagery The essays analyse how the dominant social discourses and imageries construct identity or assign subject positions in relation to the categories of race nation region gender and language The volume is designed to inform the study of those categories in cultural studies sociology anthropology gender studies literary studies philosophy and history Its coverage is geographically global multidisciplinary and theoretically eclectic but also accessible The authors include both established and rising scholars from historical literary media gender and cultural studies This innovative collection will appeal to all those who are interested in the mechanisms of constructing and evolving personal and group identities in past and present Joyū ni natta watakushi Yasumasa Morimura,1996
