Reforming the Art of Dying Austrā Reinis, 2007 This study focuses on the earliest of Protestant handbooks that addressed the subject of death and dying Beginning with Luther's Sermon on Preparing to Die in 1519 and ending with Jakob Otter's Christlich leben vnd sterben in 1528 it explores how Luther and his colleagues adopted traditional themes and motifs transforming them to accord with their conviction that Christians could be certain of their salvation It further shows how Luther's colleagues drew on his writings not only his teaching on dying but also other writings including his sermons on the sacraments The study concludes that the assurance of salvation that these works offered represented a significant change from traditional teaching on death

Renaissance Humanism in Support of the Gospel in Luther's Early

Correspondence Timothy P. Dost, 2017-07-05 Seeking to establish the influence of humanism on Luther through a study of his early correspondence c1507-1522 this work explores what effect these humanist ideas and techniques had on his developing religious beliefs Rhetoric and Reform Marjorie O'Rourke Boyle, 1983 The Role of Rhetorical Theory in Contemporary Episcopal and Lutheran Homiletics Instruction Thomas George Rogers, 1990 The Rhetoric of Racism Mark Lawrence McPhail, 1994 This book explores the pragmatic theoretical and philosophical issues that emerge in contemporary considerations of rhetoric and race relations It examines the epistemological assumptions at work in our understanding of and participation in the language of oppression Contents In the Shadow of the Word From Socrates to South Africa Language and Oppression Racism in Black and White Race as Symbolic Reality From Complicity to Coherence References Index Rhetorical Elements in the Tragedies of Seneca Howard Vernon Canter, 1925 Luther's Rhetoric Neil LeRoux, 2002-01-01 Throughout his career Martin Luther preached regularly Perhaps because there is so much of it a large portion of the extant sermon material has not been explored by scholars However Luther's most famous sermons the Invocavit Sermons are frequently quoted discussed in every comprehensive Reformation history and preserved in many important English collections of Luther discourse These sermons and the situation that surrounded them continue to be crucial not only for understanding Luther's rhetoric but for appreciating the positions and strategies of Luther's opponents This book provides a detailed analysis of the organization strategies and style of Luther's Invocavit Sermons and explores how Luther's arguments functioned logically and psychologically The author provides historical and theological background to the sermons explains rhetorical analysis and its contributions to scholarship and offers careful and informative commentary on each sermon From this analysis readers will discover a clearer picture of why Luther's preaching was so compelling The Rhetoric of Racism Revisited Mark Lawrence McPhail, 2002 Looks at the rhetorical dynamics of racism how in addition to social and material structures and institutions language can be a cause and facilitator of racism Thoroughly discusses essentialism and racial difference theories of complicity and coherence and the theory of racism as a problem of psychiatry back cover Luther and Lutheranism Paul D. Petersen, 1985 The Rhetoric of Controversy in the Lutheran Church--Missouri Synod with Particular Emphasis on the Years 1969-1976 Laurie Ann Schultz Hayes, 1980

The Rhetoric of Western Thought James L. Golden, 1997 Building upon a rich legacy the new edition of The Rhetoric of Western Thought provides readers with a comprehensive understanding of rhetoric from its inception in the ancient world to its present day expression in contemporary practice and scholarship As with previous editions The Rhetoric of Western Thought has been revised to enhance its traditional strengths by expanding coverage by refining pedagogy by updating treatment and by improving organization clarity and readability Classical Rhetoric and the German Poet 1620 to the Present Anna Carrdus, 1996 This study relates theory to the details of poetic practice it presents Opitz Burger and Aichendorff as representatives of their times and demonstrates how they adapt the classical arts to their particular talents and beliefs All three poets are shown at work within a tradition flexible enough to persist even into the present The author shows how the influence of rhetoric on German poetry did not vanish in the mid 18th century as is widely supposed The first chapter briefly compares theoretical statements by Martin Opitz and the 20th century poet Peter Rühmkorf it uses the comparison to introduce two main arguments that classical rhetoric and poetics exert a persistent though constantly changing influence on the composition of German poetry and that the theoretical precepts and natural talent are mutually interdependent These arguments are developed through the examination of works by three German poets taken from periods of major literary change Opitz is representative of the Baroque Burger of the Sturm und Drang and Eichendorff of Romanticism Three main chapters reconstruct the working method of each poet applying his own theory and that of near contemporaries to detailed analysis of one of two of his poems This procedure illustrates how each poet adapts rhetorical and poetic traditions to his own personal talent and to the literary preoccupations of his time Luther and German

Humanism Lewis William Spitz, 1996 These are 12 studies in English representing the relationship of humanism and religious reform in the 16th century transformation of European culture In the context of the cultural and intellectual thinking of the Renaissance and the Reformation it offers essays on Luther and German humanism
