So Long as They Die, 2006 Recommendations To state and federal corrections agencies To state legislators and the U S Congress I Development of lethal injection protocols Oklahoma Texas Tennessee Lethal injection machines Public access to lethal injection protocols II Lethal injection drugs Potassium chloride Pancuronium bromide Sodium thiopental The failure to review protocols III Lethal injection procedures Qualifications of execution team Checking the IV equipment Level of anesthesia not monitored IV Physician participation in executions and medical ethics V Case study Morales v Hickman VI Botched executions VII International human rights and U S constitutional law International human rights law U S Constitutional law Appendix A State Execution Methods Acknowledgements      Neuroscience and the Soul Crisp et al, 2016 It is a widely held belief that human beings are both body and soul that our immaterial soul is distinct from our material body But that traditional idea has been seriously questioned by much recent research in the brain sciences In Neuroscience and the Soul fourteen distinguished scholars grapple with current debates about the existence and nature of the soul Featuring a dialogical format the book presents state of the art work by leading philosophers and theologians some arguing for the existence of the soul others arguing against and then puts those scholars into conversation with critics of their views Bringing philosophy theology and neuroscience together in this way brings to light new nuances and significantly advances the ongoing debate over body and soul back of book      Silenced Screams Jeanette M. Liska, 2002      What Is the Argument? Maralee Harrell, 2016-10-21 Exploring philosophy through detailed argument analyses of texts by philosophers from Plato to Strawson using a novel and transparent method of analysis The best way to introduce students to philosophy and philosophical discourse is to have them read and wrestle with original sources This textbook explores philosophy through detailed argument analyses of texts by philosophers from Plato to Strawson It presents a novel and transparent method of analysis that will teach students not only how to understand and evaluate philosophers arguments but also how to construct such arguments themselves Students will learn to read a text and discover what the philosopher thinks why the philosopher thinks it and whether the supporting argument is good Students learn argument analysis through argument diagrams with color coding of the argument s various elements conclusion claims and indicator phrases An online mini course in argument diagramming and argument diagramming software are both freely available online Each chapter ends with exercises and reading questions After a general introduction to philosophy and logic and an explanation of argument analysis the book presents selections from primary sources arranged by topics that correspond to contemporary debates with detailed analysis and evaluation These topics include philosophy of religion epistemology theory of mind free will and determinism and ethics authors include Aristotle Aquinas Descartes Hume Kant Ryle Fodor Dennett Searle and others What Is the Argument not only introduces students to great philosophical thinkers it also teaches them the essential skill of critical thinking      Human Rights Watch: United States, So Long as They Die, Lethal Injections in the United States, 2006      How Does It

Hurt? Stephanie de Montalk, 2015-07-01 In How Does It Hurt acclaimed poet and biographer Stephanie de Montalk tells the story of the chronic pain that has invaded her life for more than 10 years She considers how her early experiences have been cast into fresh relief by what she has endured then goes back in time to investigate the lives and works of three writers who also lived with and wrote about pain the consolator English social theorist Harriet Martineau 1802 1876 the vendor of happiness French novelist Alphonse Daudet 1840 1897 and the imago Polish poet Aleksander Wat 1900 1967 Through these explorations de Montalk confronts the paradox of writing about suffering where we can turn when the pain is beyond words A unique blend of memoir imaginative biography and poetry How Does It Hurt is a groundbreaking contribution to the understanding of chronic pain and a spellbinding literary achievement

Communicating Pain Stephanie de Montalk, 2018-10-26 Combining critical research with memoir essay poetry and creative biography this insightful volume sensitively explores the lived experience of chronic pain Confronting the language of pain and the paradox of writing about personal pain Communicating Pain is a personal response to the avoidance dismissal and isolation experienced by the author after developing intractable pelvic pain in 2003 The volume focuses on pain's infamous resistance to verbal expression the sense of exile experienced by sufferers and the under recognised distinction between acute and chronic pain In doing so it creates a platform upon which scholarly imaginative and emotional quotients round out pain as the sum of physical actualities mental challenges and psychosocial interactions Additionally this work creates a dialogue between medicine and literature Considering the works of writers such as Harriet Martineau Alphonse Daudet and Aleksander Wat it enables a multi genre narrative heightened by poetry fictional storytelling and life writing Coupled with academic rigour this insightful monograph constitutes a persuasive and unique exploration of pain and the communication of suffering It will appeal to students and researchers interested in fields such as Medical Humanities Autobiography Studies and Sociology of Health and Illness
