EASTER LETTERS FROM
DAD IN HEAVEN

Loving God,

Fill the space in my heart left by my father's absence with your comforting peace and joy. Help me find meaning in remembering the life he lived and sharing his legacy with future generations. Amen.

Reynolds,2009 This book investigates the migration of nearly 20% of the population from the village of Frauenstein Wiesbaden Germany in the mid nineteenth century 1852 54 to Australia using the letters and diaries of the towns people as well as official records and documentation These migrants were imported as indentured workers for the developing wine industry being sponsored by the Australian colonial authorities and their stories make a significant contribution to both the migration debate as well as early Australian history Using the voices of ordinary people revealed in their writing to and from Europe the Frauenstein Letters gives new insights into the migration process What urged these people to migrate What did they think about migration and how were they affected by it Much of this migration correspondence has been generated by the female members of the family and as treasured possessions the letters have survived a century and a half and provide a window onto the experiences of ordinary working women whose voices from that period were seldom heard The female construct of memory and hence of history is different and this book shows how important female migrant letters are in enhancing our knowledge of history and human migration     Light ,1928
