COVID-19, Tourist Destinations and Prospects for Recovery Kaitano Dube,Ishmael Mensah,Lazarus

Chapungu,2023-03-16 Despite the fact that the African tourism industry is prone to disturbances such as diseases extreme weather events civil unrest wars and other shocks nothing could have prepared this destination for the devastating effect of the COVID 19 pandemic In the absence of government or international agency budget support the pandemic challenged the African tourism market to its core The focus of this book is to assess the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on the African tourism destination market as well as its prospects for recovery A chapter written by the editorial team introduces the book Following the introduction the book offers chapters evaluating the pandemic s impact on African tourism Chapters in the second part of the book discuss tourism recovery and how some destinations have survived the pandemic The book concludes with a chapter providing policy recommendations and practical implementation advice The book is part of a 3 volume series

Entrepreneurship in the BRICS Ndivhuho Tshikovihi,Fulufhelo Netswera,Ravinder Rena,2024-10-14 Entrepreneurship is a tool of innovation promotion that supports sound economic environments as it stimulates economic growth and development The BRICS nations i e Brazil Russia India China and South Africa are a group of emerging countries comprising the highest developmental block of the emerging nations It is imperative to assess the entrepreneurship policies strategies and promotional programmes and their implications for among others entrepreneurship funding economic growth and employment trends The COVID 19 pandemic has impacted the entrepreneurship environment and equally steered state funding priorities away from entrepreneurship development support worldwide This research book assesses the effect that COVID 19 has had on government funding priority policy interventions and resultant implications on the entrepreneurship environment economic growth and employment with a focus on BRICS Readers will gain insight into what entrepreneurship looks like in the BRICS context and how it has been affected by COVID 19 indicating how the BRICS nations are likely to move forward to further strengthen entrepreneurship This edited volume will be of interest to researchers academics practitioners and advanced students in the fields of entrepreneurship innovation strategy international relations multilateralism and economic development The South African Response to COVID-19 Pieter Fourie,Guy Lamb,2023-03-28

This book analyses the first two years of South Africa s response to the COVID 19 epidemic from its emergence in early 2020 Drawing on the perspectives of a range of public health experts economists and other social scientists and development practitioners this book argues that understanding this early response will be essential to moderate and improve future policy thinking around health governance and epidemic readiness This book provides a systemic analysis of not only the epidemiological progression of COVID 19 in South Africa but also the socio political factors that will be key in determining the future of the country as a whole including health system challenges socio economic disparities and inequalities and variable often contradictory and tardy policy responses Overall this book exposes Manichean thinking and the spurious policy dichotomies that pitch public health against human rights economic recovery against viral vector control and science against ideology with lessons not just for South Africa but also for elsewhere on the African continent and beyond This book will be perfect for researchers and practitioners across Public Health Health Policy and Global Health as well as those with an interest in South African politics and development more generally The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Africa's Pulse, No. 23, October 2021 Albert G. Zeufack, Cesar

Calderon,Megumi Kubota,Alain Ntumba Kabundi,Vijdan Korman,Catalina Cantu Canales,2021-10-06 The economic impact of the COVID 19 pandemic in Sub Saharan Africa has been severe however countries are weathering the storm so far Real GDP is estimated to contract by 2.0 percent in 2020 close to the lower bound of the forecast range in April 2020 and less than the contraction in advanced economies and other emerging markets and developing economies excluding China Available data from the second half of 2020 point to rebound in economic activity that explain why the contraction in the region was in the lower bound of the forecasts It reflected a slower spread of the virus and lower COVID 19 related mortality in the region strong agricultural growth and a faster than expected recovery in commodity prices Economic activity in the region is expected to rise to a range between 2.3 and 3.4 percent in 2021 depending on the policy measures adopted by countries and the international community However prospects for a slow vaccine rollout the resurgence of pandemic and limited scope for additional fiscal support could hold back the recovery in the region Policies to support the economy in the near term should be complemented by structural reforms that encourage sustained investment create jobs and enhance competitiveness Reducing the countries debt burden will release resources for public investment in areas such as education health and infrastructure Investments in human capital will help lower the risk of long lasting damage from the pandemic which may become apparent over the longer term and can enhance competitiveness and productivity The next twelve months will be a critical period for leveraging the African Continental Free Trade Area in order to deepen African countries integration into regional and global value chains Finally reforms that address digital infrastructure gaps and make the digital economy more inclusive ensuring affordability but also building skills for all segments of society are critical to improve connectivity boost digital technology adoption and generate more and better jobs for men and women
