Leven te Leuven in de late middeleeuwen Lutgarde Bessemans,1998      The Fullness of Time Matthew S. Champion,2017-11-13 The Low Countries were at the heart of innovation in Europe in the fifteenth century Throughout this period the flourishing cultures of the Low Countries were also wrestling with time itself The Fullness of Time explores that struggle and the changing conceptions of temporality that it represented and embodied showing how they continue to influence historical narratives about the emergence of modernity today The Fullness of Time asks how the passage of time in the Low Countries was ordered by the rhythms of human action from the musical life of a cathedral to the measurement of time by clocks and calendars the work habits of a guildsman to the devotional practices of the laity and religious orders Through a series of transdisciplinary case studies it explores the multiple ways that objects texts and music might themselves be said to engage with imply and unsettle time shaping and forming the lives of the inhabitants of the fifteenth century Low Countries Champion reframes the ways historians have traditionally told the history of time allowing us for the first time to understand the rich and varied interplay of temporalities in the period      The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane,2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture      Leven te Leuven in de late middeleeuwen Inès Honoré,Maurits Smeyers,Veronique Vandekerchove,Stedelijk Museum Vander Kelen-Mertens (Leuven),Raymond van Uytven,1998 Tentoonstelling in het Stedelijk Museum Vander Kelen Mertens Leuven van 19 september tot 6 december 1998      Travel, Time, and Space in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Time Albrecht Classen,2018-10-22 Research on medieval and early modern travel literature has made great progress which now allows us to take the next step and to analyze the correlations between the individual and space throughout time which contributed essentially to identity formation in many different settings The contributors to this volume engage with a variety of pre modern texts images and other documents related to travel and the individual s self orientation in foreign lands and make an effort to determine the concept of identity within a spatial framework often determined by the meeting of various cultures Moreover objects images and words can also travel and connect people from different worlds through books The volume thus brings together new scholarship focused on the interrelationship of travel space time and individuality which also includes of course women s movement through the larger world whether in concrete terms or through proxy travel via readings Travel here is also examined with respect to craftsmen s activities at various sites artists employment for many different projects all over Europe and elsewhere and in terms of metaphysical experiences catabasis      Behaviour Behind Bones Sharyn Jones O'Day,Wim Van Neer,Anton
