Finders, Susan Hynds, 2007 From two prominent scholars in the field of literacy comes a middle school teacher preparation text that offers important innovations not usually found in traditional secondary methods texts. The book is rife with concrete examples of teaching literacy and language arts in middle school contexts but is relevant to preservice and practicing teachers at middle and high school levels. This edition includes a stronger focus on culturally relevant pedagogy and the needs of English Language Learners as well as a Standards in Practice feature which helps teachers incorporate state and national standards in teaching and planning. The book is based on a teacher as inquirer model. A fieldwork component provides tools for classroom inquiry and reflection in each chapter. The book is timely and relevant with classroom cases written by experienced and new middle school language arts teachers. Children's Software & New Media Revue, 2004 PC Magazine, 2000 I-search for Success Donna Duncan, Laura Lockhart, 2005. Extending the authors' previous book I Search You Search We All Learn to Research Neal Schuman 2000, this title takes readers step by step through a unit for grades three and four from planning to assessment. Large boxed figures interspersed throughout the text include I Search forms, worksheets, organizational tools, and lists of resources for further information. The accompanying CD-ROM contains the collaborative planning guide, the I Search journal for students, and a PowerPoint presentation for professional development found in the book with all of the figures incorporated for easy modification and printing. This is a valuable resource guide for teachers and librarians using or planning to use the I Search method. Booklist
