Design, History and Time Zoë Hendon, Anne Massey, 2019-02-21 Design History and Time reflects on the nature of time in relation to design in both past and contemporary contexts In contrast to a traditional design historical approach which emphasises schools and movements this volume addresses time as a continuum and considers the importance of temporality for design practice and history Contributors address how designers design historians and design thinkers might respond to the global challenges of time the rhythms of work and the increasing speed of life and communication between different communities They consider how the past informs the present and the future in terms of design the importance of time based design practices such as rapid prototyping and slow design time in relation to memory and forgetting and artefacts such as the archive for which time is key and ponder the design of time itself Showcasing the work of fifteen design scholars from a range of international contexts the book provides an essential text for thinking about changing attitudes to the temporal

Addictive Consumption Gerda Reith, 2018-09-03 In this engaging new book Gerda Reith explores key theoretical concepts in the sociology of consumption Drawing on the ideas of Foucault Marx and Bataille amongst others she investigates the ways that understandings of the problems of consumption change over time and asks what these changes can tell us about their wider social and political contexts Through this she uses ideas about both consumption and addiction to explore issues around identity and desire excess and control and reason and disorder She also assesses how our concept of normal consumption has grown out of efforts to regulate behaviour historically considered as disruptive or deviant and how in the contemporary world the dark side of consumption has been medicalised in terms of addiction pathology and irrationality By drawing on case studies of drugs food and gambling the volume demonstrates the ways in which modern practices of consumption are rooted in historical processes and embedded in geopolitical structures of power It not only asks how modern consumer culture came to be in the form it is today but also questions what its various manifestations can tell us about wider issues in capitalist modernity Addictive Consumption offers a compelling new perspective on the origins development and problems of consumption in modern society The volume s interdisciplinary profile will appeal to scholars and students in sociology psychology history philosophy and anthropology Muslim Fashion Reina Lewis,2015-10-15 In the shops of London s Oxford Street girls wear patterned scarves over their hair as they cluster around makeup counters Alongside them hip twenty somethings style their head wraps in high black topknots to match their black boot cut trousers Participating in the world of popular mainstream fashion often thought to be the domain of the West these young Muslim women are part of an emergent cross faith transnational youth subculture of modest fashion In treating hijab and other forms of modest clothing as fashion Reina Lewis counters the overuse of images of veiled women as evidence in the prevalent suggestion that Muslims and Islam are incompatible with Western modernity Muslim Fashion contextualizes modest wardrobe styling within Islamic and global consumer cultures interviewing key players including designers bloggers shoppers store clerks and shop owners Focusing on Britain North America and Turkey Lewis provides insights into the ways young Muslim women use multiple fashion systems to negotiate religion identity and ethnicity Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1995 Alerta ,1976
