Janie Chapman State Missions For 2013:

Spiritan Life and Mission Since Vatican II William Cleary, 2018-02-01 The Second Vatican Council 1962-65 called for the renewal of all religious institutes in the Catholic Church. The Congregation of the Holy Spirit Spiritans responded initially under the leadership of Archbishop Marcel Lefebvre. Different interpretations of Vatican II caused divisions culminating in Lefebvre's departure from the congregation. From this difficult starting point the Spiritans sought to redefine themselves in creative fidelity to their founding intention: the spirit of Vatican II and the signs of the times. Spiritan Life and Mission since Vatican II recounts this journey of renewal in three parts: the Spiritan world before Vatican II and the election of Archbishop Lefebvre as superior general in 1962; the ad experimentum period culminating with a new rule of life in 1986 and the implementation of this new rule as interpreted through inter-congregational discourse; particularly the general chapters of 1992, 1998, and 2004. The development of thinking on the church's mission and the congregation's rediscovery of the founding charisms of Claude Poullart des Places and Francis Libermann provide the parameters for this positive interpretation of the Spiritan journey of renewal. Its evolution in the third millennium into a multicultural international missionary community of some three thousand members from over sixty countries in service of the Missio Dei bears testimony to this. Byers, Laura Pedrick, 2023-07-18

The second edition of Policy Practice for Social Workers expands the concept of policy practice in social work settings and illustrates how significant policy change may be achieved at a local, community, state, and national level. Guided by an ethic of care approach, this textbook is intended to raise readers' awareness about policy practice and its fundamental relationship with the aims of the social work profession. It offers a foundation for key skill development and contextualizes the work of policy practitioners in the larger political-economic settings in which they work. This textbook is divided into two parts. First, readers will expand their understanding of policy practice: its beginnings and development over the course of social welfare history and the political-economic and social drivers that affect policy decisions and undergird the U.S. political system. Readers will also learn about the ethic of care framework and the value-based lens it contributes to the policymaking process. Later in the book's second part, readers will explore the essential skills and values in policy work. Detailed coverage and vivid examples offer valuable insight into specific advocacy skills, including lobbying, community organizing, mobilizing, advocacy, public coalition building, campaigning, problem analysis, policy analysis, and policy evaluation. Within its comprehensive overview of policy practice and advocacy, the new edition of this text extols a value-laden perspective to identify and assess unmet needs and promote a more socially just environment for all.
