Kitty Kraus Kerber Edition Young Art:

The Original Copy Roxana Marcoci, Geoffrey Batchen, Tobia Bezzola, 2010 Since its birth in the first half of the 19th century photography has offered extraordinary possibilities of isolating works of art for study and pleasure Through cropping focus angle of view distance and lighting as well as the ex post facto techniques of dark room manipulation collage montage and assemblage photographers not only interpret the artworks they record but create stunning reinventions The Original Copy Photography of Sculpture 1939 to Today presents a critical examination of the intersections between photography and sculpture Through a selection of nearly 300 outstanding pictures by more than 100 artists from the 19th century to the present The Original Copy explores how one medium has become implicated in the understanding of the other Photographs reproduced in this richly illustrated volume range in subject from inanimate objects to performing bodies and include major works by medium's most influential artists from early modernism to the present

The Architecture of Error Francesca Hughes, 2014-11-07 Why the rise of redundant precision in architecture and the accompanying fear of error are key to understanding the discipline's needs anxieties and desires When architects draw even brick walls to six decimal places with software designed to cut lenses it is clear that the logic that once organized relations between precision and material error in construction has unraveled Precision already a promiscuous term seems now to have been uncoupled from its contract with truthfulness Meanwhile error and the always political space of its dissent has reconfigured itself In The Architecture of Error Francesca Hughes argues that behind the architect's acute fetishization of redundant precision lies a special fear of physical error What if we were to consider the pivotal cultural and technological transformations of modernism to have been driven not so much by the causes its narratives declare she asks as by an unspoken horror of loss of control over error material life and everything that matter stands for Hughes traces the rising intolerance of material vagaries from the removal of ornament to digitalized fabrication that produced the blind rejection of organic materials the proliferation of material testing and the rhetorical obstacles that blighted cybernetics Why is it she asks that the more we cornered physical error the more we feared it Hughes's analysis of redundant precision exposes an architecture of fear whose politics must be called into question Proposing error as a new category for architectural thought Hughes draws on other disciplines and practices that have interrogated precision and failure citing the work of scientists Nancy Cartwright and Evelyn Fox Keller and visual artists Gordon Matta Clark Barbara Hepworth Rachel Whiteread and others These non architect practitioners she argues show that error need not be excluded and precision can be made accountable

Art and the Home Imogen Racz, 2015-01-26 Our homes contain us but they are also within us They can represent places to be ourselves to recollect childhood memories or to withdraw into adult spaces of intimacy they can be sites for developing rituals family relationships and acting out cultural expectations Like the personal social and cultural elements out of which they are constructed homes can be not only comforting but threatening too The home is a rich theme running through post war western art and it continues to engage contemporary artists today yet it has been the subject of relatively little critical writing Art and the Home Comfort Alienation and the Everyday is the first single authored up to date book on the subject Imogen Racz provides a theme led discussion about how the physical experience of the dwelling space and the psychological complexities of the domestic are manifested in art focusing mainly on sculpture installation and object based practice discussing the work and ideas of artists as diverse as Louise Bourgeois Gordon Matta Clark George Segal and Cornelia Parker within their artistic and cultural contexts Kitty Kraus Kitty Kraus, Medals of Dishonour Philip Attwood, Felicity Powell, 2009 The first 23 medals in Medals of Dishonour create a fascinating commentary on events and issues of the 16th 20th centuries and include Dutch medals satirizing kings German and British medals on financial scandal and political corruption a French medal showing a future emperor as an insect German medals of the First World War period lambasting war and two 1939 American medals protesting against racism and capitalism The second part of the book focuses on medals recently commissioned by the British Art Medal Trust from 16 celebrated contemporary artists Their brief was to tackle the global issues of our time Jake and Dinos Chapman graphically expose the banality of war while the allied invasion of Iraq in 2003 is addressed in differing but equally powerful ways by Steve Bell Richard Hamilton Yun Fei Ji and Cornelia Parker Geo politics oppression and the abuse of power are the subjects of medals by Mona Hatoum Ilya and Emilia Kabakov William Kentridge and Langlands and Bell Ellen Gallagher confronts the horrors of racial exploitation Michael Landy turns anti social behaviour on its head and Grayson Perry mocks western consumerism In the final medal Felicity Powell pours scorn on the responses of public figures to environmental issues With over 170 illustrations including details and accompanying drawings as well as the actual medals themselves Medals of Dishonour provides an intriguing exploration into a darker tradition of medal making Book Jacket Kitty Kraus Kitty Kraus, 2009 Text by Veit Loers Matthia Lobke Uwe Frohlich Bettina Klein Paperbound Books in Print ,1992
