Fédération des sciences humaines Les littératures de l'exiguïté dont font partie les ensembles littéraires franco-canadiens restent fascinés par les silences de l'espace. Elles oublient leur longue histoire et renoncent par là aux riches taxonomies liées au passé collectif et la mémoire tant elles s'efforcent de concorder avec les territoires imaginés géographiques et identitaires où elles s'inscrivent.

Lucie Hotte et François Paré ont réuni des études qui témoignent du dynamisme de l'activité littéraire franco-canadienne marquée par l'histoire mais aussi représentative de l'image que chacune des collectivités se fait d'elle-même et de son avenir. Les œuvres analysées illustrent la recherche esthétique d'une grande originalité menée par les écrivains franco-canadiens dans des conditions souvent difficiles sur le plan des institutions littéraires et des moyens de publication ou de diffusion.

Cet ouvrage réunit les textes de Marie Carrière, Jeanette Den Toonder, Grégoire Holtz, Lucie Hotte, Kathleen Kellett, Louise Ladouceur, Jean Morency, François Paré, Pamela V. Sing, Jimmy Thibeault et Emmanuelle Tremblay. En somme, une multiplicité de regards et une synthèse unique sur la francophonie canadienne durant plus de quatre siècles d'écriture.

Une collaboration avec le Centre de recherche en civilisation canadienne française. By gathering studies on the French Canadian literary activity of the last four centuries, Lucie Hotte and François Paré have managed to create a dynamic fresco in which a multitude of points of view from Marie Carrière to Jimmy Thibeault, Grégoire Holtz, Louise Ladouceur or Jean Morency manage to create a unique synthesis of the history and styles that characterize the literatures of exiguity: those in a language minority context.

The Dictionary of Louisiana French (DLF) provides the richest inventory of French vocabulary in Louisiana and reflects precisely the speech of the period from 1930 to the present. This dictionary describes the current usage of French-speaking peoples in the five broad regions of South Louisiana: the coastal marshes, the banks of the Mississippi River, the central area, the north and the western prairie. Data were collected during interviews from at least five persons in each of twenty-four areas in these regions. In addition to the data collected from fieldwork, the dictionary contains material compiled from existing lexical inventories from texts published after 1930 and from archival recordings. The new authoritative resource, the DLF, not only contains the largest number of words and expressions but also provides the most complete information available for each entry. Entries include the word in the conventional French spelling the pronunciation including attested variants the part of speech classification the English equivalent and the word s use in common phrases The DLF features a wealth of illustrative examples derived from fieldwork and textual sources and identification of the parish where the entry was collected or the source from which it was compiled An English to Louisiana French index enables readers to find out how particular notions would be expressed in la Louisiane Histoire Sociale ,1984 Proceedings of the Standing Senate Committee on Legal and Constitutional Affairs Canada.
