Voices from French Ontario Sheila McLeod Arnopoulos, 1982-11-01 For more than a year and a half Sheila Arnopoulos travelled through the region visiting or living in Sudbury Hearst Dubreuilville and Timmins Here she chronicles the changes time has brought to the lives of some of the 700 000 people of French origin in Ontario She describes the blossoming of a culture which draws from both French and English backgrounds She features the stories of two celebrated Canadian businessmen from Sudbury Paul Desmarais and Robert Campeau in a discussion of the development of a new commercial and financial life Arnopoulos also writes of miners poets playwrights lumber barons and ordinary people to give a vivid picture of their frustrations and aspirations The French of Nouvelle Ontario have created a regional identity of their own But under what conditions can French communities in English Canada hope to survive Arnopoulos finds that federal bilingualism and the expansion of French Quebec businesses across the country are most likely the key factors Canadian Copyright Laura J.
