Globalization and Agriculture Miguel Rocha de Sousa, Zander Navarro, Antônio Márcio Buainain, 2017-11-08 Globalization and Agriculture Redefining Unequal Development focuses on the development of national agriculture of nine countries in Latin America Africa and Asia from two different and complementary angles One angle is the opportunities created by globalization for agricultural production and how the countries have dealt with the expansion of the world as a consequence of the world market The other angle is the social and economic consequences of globalization for agricultural and rural development The case studies included in this book prove that the contradictory meanings referred above are indeed representative of different facets and features of globalization

Mozambique Rising: Building a New Tomorrow Ms. Doris C. Ross, Victor Duarte Lledo, Mr. Alex Segura-Ubiergo, Mr. Yuan Xiao, Ms. Iyabo Masha, Mr. Alun H.

Thomas, Mr. Keiichiro Inui, 2014-08-20 The countries in the East African Community EAC are among the fastest growing economies in sub Saharan Africa This report highlights Mozambique's remarkably strong growth over the two decades since the end of the civil war in 1992 as well as the major challenges that remain for the country to rise out of poverty and further its economic development

Industries Without Smokestacks Richard S. Newfarmer, Finn Tarp, John Page, 2018 Although manufacturing has played an important role in the growth of developing countries Africa has lagged in this industry This book argues that activities sharing the characteristics of manufacturing including tourism and ICT are beginning to play an important role in Africa offering new opportunities for growth in coming decades

Mozambique Rising Doris Ross, 2014 The countries in the East African Community EAC are among the fastest growing economies in sub Saharan Africa This report highlights Mozambique's remarkably strong growth over the two decades since the end of the civil war in 1992 as well as the major challenges that remain for the country to rise out of poverty and further its economic development

The Politics of Precarity Gediminas Lesutis, 2021-12-30 Based on critical theory and ethnographic research this book explores how intensifying geographies of extractive capitalism shape human lives and transformative politics in marginal areas of the global economy Engaging the work of Judith Butler Henri Lefebvre and Jacques Rancière with ethnographic research on social and political effects of mining induced dispossession in Mozambique in the book Lesutis theorises how precarity unfolds as a spatially constituted condition of everyday life given over to the violence of capital Going beyond labour relations or governance of life in liberal democracies that are typically explored in the literature on precarity the book shows how dispossessed people are subjected to structural symbolic and direct modalities of violence this simultaneously constitutes their suffering and ceaseless desire however implausible to be included into abstract space of extractivism As a result despite the multifarious violence that it engenders extractive capital accumulation is sustained even in the margins historically excluded from contingently lived imaginaries of a good life promised by capitalism Presenting this theorisation of precarity as a framework on and a critique of the contemporary politics of un liveability the book speaks to key debates about precarity dispossession resistance extractivism and development in several disciplines especially political geography IPE global politics and critical theory It will also be of interest to scholars in development studies critical political economy and African politics
