Parliament (1994- ). National Assembly,1997      No Time Like the Present Nadine Gordimer,2012-03-15 Nadine Gordimer is one of our most telling contemporary writers With each new work she attacks with a clear eyed lack of sentimentality and an understanding of the darkest depths of the human soul the inextricable link between personal life and political communal history The revelation of this theme in each new work not only in her homeland South Africa but the twenty first century world is evidence of her literary genius in the sharpness of her psychological insights the stark beauty of her language the complexity of her characters and the difficult choices with which they are faced In No Time Like the Present Gordimer brings the reader into the lives of Steven Reed and Jabulile Gumede a mixed couple both of whom have been combatants in the struggle for freedom against apartheid Once clandestine lovers under racist law forbidding sexual relations between white and black they are now in the new South Africa The place and time where freedom the better life for all that was fought for and promised is being created but also challenged by political and racial tensions while the hangover of moral ambiguities and the vast and growing gap between affluence and mass poverty continue to haunt the present No freedom from personal involvement in these or in the personal intimacy of love The subject is contemporary but Gordimer s treatment is timeless In No Time Like the Present she shows herself once again a master novelist at the height of her prodigious powers      Annual Report for ... W.K.
