Mokgoatšana, 2025-05-06 Colonial and apartheid era historical narratives in South Africa often disregard oral testimonies leaving significant gaps in understanding the country's rich and complex past This scholarly book explores the methodologies and ethics of oral history to address these omissions and to elevate oral testimonies as vital tools in historical scholarship This book brings together ten chapters authored by leading academics and researchers It critically examines how oral history methodologies can be contextualised within South Africa's diverse and multifaceted society Rather than focusing on Eurocentric approaches it emphasises the need to rethink the ethics and practices of oral history from an Afrocentric perspective Through its transdisciplinary and interdisciplinary lens spanning history indigenous knowledge studies museum and archival studies and folklore this book advocates for the recognition of interviewees as knowledge holders fostering meaningful exchanges rather than mere knowledge extraction The authors emphasise the need to protect and expand oral history archives ensuring the representation of marginalised voices and redressing past injustices With original research this volume sheds light on the transformative potential of oral history in South Africa offering new arguments and perspectives It aims to inspire scholars researchers and specialists to rethink conventional practices and to bridge the divide between written and oral histories This is essential literature for scholars and practitioners in history oral history theology museum studies and related fields as it reimagines the role of oral testimonies in producing inclusive and credible historical narratives

Annual Report Mpumalanga (South Africa). Department of Education, 2015 Resources in Education, 2001-10 The Unresolved National Question in South Africa Edward Webster, Karin Pampallis, John Mawbey, Jeremy Cronin, 2017-03-01 This volume examines the way in which various strands of left thought have addressed the National Question The re-emergence of debates on the decolonisation of knowledge has revived interest in the National Question which began over a century ago and remains unresolved Tensions that were suppressed and hidden in the past are now being openly debated Despite this the goal of one united nation living prosperously under a constitutional democracy remains elusive This edited volume examines the way in which various strands of left thought have addressed the National Question especially during the apartheid years and goes on to discuss its relevance for South Africa today and in the future Instead of imposing a particular understanding of the National Question the editors identified a number of political traditions and allowed contributors the freedom to define the question as they believed appropriate in other words to explain what they thought was the Unresolved National Question This has resulted in a rich tapestry of interweaving perceptions The volume is structured in two parts The first examines four foundational traditions Marxism Leninism the Colonialism of a Special Type thesis the Congress tradition the Trotskyist tradition and Africanism The second part explores the various shifts in the debate from the 1960s onwards and includes chapters on Afrikaner nationalism ethnic issues black consciousness feminism workerism and constitutionalism The editors hope that by revisiting the debates not popularly known among the scholarly mainstream this volume will become a catalyst for an enriched debate on our identity and our future
