Mr Ma And Son:

Mr Ma and Son Lao She, 2022-10-06 A deliciously funny and moving comedy of manners about a Chinese father and son's experiences at the height of London's Jazz Age. He was in London why be bothered looking at it. Wasn't it bad enough just being there. Newly arrived from China, Mr Ma and his son Ma Wei run an antiques shop nestled by St Paul's Cathedral where they try to make a living amid the smog and bustle of 1920s London. As they struggle with money misunderstandings and the ways of the English from the overbearing patronage of missionary Reverend Ely to their well-meaning landlady Mrs Weddeburn and her carefree daughter, can understanding even love blossom. Both a moving story of the Chinese immigrant experience and a biting funny satire on the English. Mr Ma and Son delicately portrays the dreams and disappointments of those seeking a new life in a distant land. Translated by William Dolby with an introduction by Julia Lovell Mr Ma and Son She Lao, William Dolby, 1987 Mr. Ma & Son She Lao, 1991 Mr. Ma and son in London She Lao, 2005

Interracial Lovers in Revolutionary China D. E. Mungello, 2023-07-14 In the twentieth century China underwent a monumental dynastic change and was transformed from an outmoded monarchy into a modern communist state. This century of revolutionary change was marked by political upheaval and social chaos. It was a period in which Chinese began to go abroad to study and conduct business while foreigners came to China for economic opportunity and adventure. In the process Chinese and foreigners began to meet and form romantic relationships. These love affairs, fengliu yunshi, are notable because they coincided with the last phase of Western imperialism, including its lingering racial prejudices and even laws against interracial sexual relationships. Conversely in China there were periodic outbreaks of hostility and violence against foreigners. This book explores the interracial relationships of twenty-two people who transcended these obstacles to cross color lines and fall in love. 王康, 2005 Renowned for his absurdist re-visioning of the world and experimentation with the techniques of humour in his writings, Lao She has written about most major historical events in modern China. In his masterpiece Camel Xiangzi he reveals his prophetic vision of the future of China. The novel depicts the life of Xiangzi, a young rickshaw puller in Beijing who fails to improve his life no matter how hard he works. When innocent people's hopes are destroyed, they are awakened to the truth that they are but playthings of fate, which is a Chinese concept for the unnameable in life's absurdities. The novel demonstrates the techniques of bitter humour Lao She employs in his portrayal of characters who are caught in the endless social turmoil in the 1930s. The novel's socio-historical dimensions have made it a widely used text for the cultural analysis of modern China. Book jacket The Poetics of Grief and Melancholy in East-West Conflicts and Reconciliations Chi Sum Garfield Lau, Kelly Kar Yue Chan, 2024-03-01 This book is a collection of academic essays that examines the representation, aesthetics and dichotomy of the notions of grief and melancholy in East-West exchanges and cultural dialogues. It explores the topic in the dimensions of individual behaviors under specific social norms and cultural products such as literature, film and any other forms of arts, genres, etc. In his 1917 work Mourning and

Melancholia Trauer und Melancholie Sigmund Freud connected the grief of loss with melancholic emotions which may give rise to acts of mourning He suggested that i n mourning it is the world which has become poor and empty in melancholia it is the ego itself Freud 1917 246 Inspired by Freud s stance and with the goal of providing up to date intellectual resources for academics researchers and students with ardent interests in the varying exemplifications of grief and melancholy in Sino Western contexts the book serves more than a discussion over the pragmatic and ritualistic connections of grief and melancholy in relation to the inner self and the external world It aims at the pursuit of a contemporary theorization of grief and melancholy beyond its modern limits

Fictional Realism in Twentieth-century China Dewei Wang,1992 Although deconstruction has become a popular catchword as an intellectual movement it has never entirely caught on within the university For some in the academy deconstruction and Jacques Derrida in particular are responsible for the demise of accountability in the study of literature Countering these facile dismissals of Derrida and deconstruction Herman Rapaport explores the incoherence that has plagued critical theory since the 1960s and the resulting legitimacy crisis in the humanities Against the backdrop of a rich informed discussion of Derrida s writings and how they have been misconstrued by critics and admirers alike The Theory Mess investigates the vicissitudes of Anglo American criticism over the past thirty years and proposes some possibilities for reform
