Phillips Oppenheim, 2018    Mr. Marx's Secret E Phillips Oppenheim, 2021-03-30 Book Excerpt undergrowth were less dense and there was a steep ascent Up it we ran and when we reached the top my mother paused to listen while I stood breathless by her side Save that the leaves above us were stirring with a curious motion there was not a sound in the whole wood Birds and animals even insects seemed to have crept away to their holes before the coming storm We could see nothing for a thick mantle of darkness a darkness which could almost be felt had fallen upon the earth We stood crouched together trembling and fearful Thank Heaven for the darkness my mother murmured to herself Philip she went on stooping down and feeling for my hand do you know where we are We should be close to the slate pits I was on the point of answering her but the words died away on my parted lips Such a sight as was revealed to us at that moment might have driven a strong man mad Although half a lifetime has passed away I can see it now as at that moment But describe it    Mr. Marx's Secret (Classic Reprint) E.
