CAUTION This book may introduce you to the stark realities of a modern day pilgrim who seeks the fuller life at the feet of Jesus No pat answers No attempt to resolve the mysterious interface between God's will and his willingness to let us muddle through the mess of life The author tells the simple but engaging story of her

struggles aspirations frustrations and satisfaction of walking with Jesus the best that she could Don't be annoyed at her humanity accept it as a humble gift and insight into your own experience Barb brings us fascinating insights into the different stages of her faith's development and a challenge to reflect upon our own Certainly good food for great thoughts Rev Stephen W Chaloner B Th M T S Regional Director PAOC Africa As I read through this book I kept thinking that this evolution should be read and even studied as a reflection which is necessary for a person entering the ministry As Wilson shares her life family and ministry events and memories she has taken the opportunity to openly expose her experiences centered against the backdrop of the seven life stages of recurrent development 1 in the context of her Faith walk The transparency is refreshing when in my reading I found that generally speaking clergies have a hard time sharing openly their life experiences Wilson in her book encourages pastors ministers and clergies to come clean as we live and preach and teach in our respective contexts By the storytelling of her life and faith development she has given the reader a glimpse of her faith and relationship with Jesus Christ and how this relates to family friends community and ministry interaction with other people thus allowing the reader to face life with hope I would recommend anyone entering a ministry in any context to read this book in order to gain an appreciation of what shapes a ministry and some ways of processing our lived experiences and forgiving ourselves for our sins and shortcomings Thank you Barbara for giving us your readers insights from a distance in the Making of a Pastor Chaplain 1 Robert Kegan The Evolving Self Problem and Process in Human Development Phillip J Robillard Minister of Faith Community in downtown Toronto Ontario Sometimes we may take the events of our lives for granted and we may be lulled into leaving well enough alone even though deep down we have a sense that something is missing or not quite right At other times we may thirst for a greater depth of meaning in what we are about As we examine our lives we may become more aware of experiences good or bad associated with past present or foreseen events What we may be less aware of in the moment is the part we can play in shaping our personal experience of whatever takes place into a more satisfying life journey This book illustrates how the author Barbara Wilson reflected deeply on pivotal life events which if left unexamined would have diminished greatly the personal meaning she was able to harvest in her journey through life She believed in and exercised her inner capacity to move beyond the erstwhile story line of the world into which she was born by re-visioning and re-shaping experienced events into a living story with satisfactory space both for personal meaning making and for enabling her to live her preferred values Her candid reflection on events in her life many of them painful others full of joy as well as her insightful evaluations of these stepping stones and her courageous choices for new directions will inspire and motivate many to take a second look at how they too can answer for themselves the pivotal questions Am I satisfied with my life experience Who do I want to be now Who do I want to become How do I reshap

Why Can't Church Be More Like an AA Meeting? Stephen R. Haynes, 2021-10-26 Do Christians need recovery Or is recovery something needed by the church itself Addiction whether to a substance or to a behavior is a problem within faith communities just like it is everywhere else But because churches are rarely experienced as safe places for dealing with addiction co addiction or the legacy of family dysfunction Christians tend to seek recovery from these conditions in Twelve Step fellowships Once they become accustomed to the ethos of vulnerability acceptance and healing that these fellowships provide however they are often left feeling that the church has failed them with many asking why can t church be more like an AA meeting Inspired by his own quest to find in church the sort of mutual support and healing he discovered in Twelve Step fellowships Stephen Haynes explores the history of Alcoholics Anonymous and its relationship to American Christianity He shows that while AA eventually separated from the Christian parachurch movement out of which it emerged it retained aspects of Christian experience that the church itself has largely lost comfort with brokenness and vulnerability an emphasis on honesty and transparency and suspicion toward claims to piety and respectability Haynes encourages Christians to reclaim these distinctive elements of the Twelve Step movement in the process of recovering church He argues that this process must begin with he calls Step 0 which as he knows from personal experience can be the hardest step the admission that despite appearances we are not fine
