La Raison Gourmande Figures

Emile Boulan

La Raison Gourmande Figures:

Food, Poetry, and the Aesthetics of Consumption Michel Delville, 2012-08-06 From Plato's dismissal of food as a distraction from thought to Kant's relegation of the palate to the bottom of the hierarchy of the senses the sense of taste has consistently been devalued by Western aesthetics Kant is often invoked as evidence that philosophers consider taste as an inferior sense because it belongs to the realm of the private and subjective and does not seem to be required in the development of higher types of knowledge From a gastrosophical perspective however what Kant perceives as a limitation becomes a new field of enquiry that investigates the dialectics of diet and discourse self and matter inside and outside The essays in this book examine the importance of food as a pivotal element both materially and conceptually in the history of the Western avant garde From Gertrude Stein to Alain Robbe Grillet and Samuel Beckett from F T Marinetti to Andy Warhol from Marcel Duchamp to Eleanor Antin the examples chosen explore the conjunction of art and foodstuff in ways that interrogate contemporary notions of the body language and subjectivity

Religious Philosophy as Multidisciplinary Comparative Inquiry Wesley J. Wildman, 2010-11-05 What can philosophy contribute to the study of religion This book argues that the study of religion needs philosophy in the form of multidisciplinary comparative inquiry Contradicting the current tendency to regard philosophical reflection and the academic study of religion as independent endeavors best kept apart Wesley J Wildman brings them together offering a broader vision than that of traditional philosophy of religion and surmounting many of its difficulties His newer conception of religious philosophy is well suited to the modern multicultural secular university Through multidisciplinary comparative inquiry religious philosophy allows for a variety of approaches from historical and analytical work to evocative description and theoretical evaluation of truth claims and both secular and religious thinkers participate The tasks and varieties of religious philosophy as they arc across the world's religions and philosophies are discussed along with religious philosophy's modern and postmodern contexts Wildman's thoughtful and thought provoking book will be essential reading for all those concerned with the study of religion present and future

Cuisine and Symbolic Capital Cheleen Mahar, 2010-05-11 This collection of interdisciplinary essays examines food as it mediates social relationships and self presentation in a variety of international films and literature Authors explore the ways that making eating and thinking about food reveals culture In doing so the essays highlight how food and foodways become a type of symbolic capital which influences the larger concern of cultural identity Essays are organized into three central themes Culinary Translations of Identity From Britain to China Food as Metaphor in Contemporary German Writing and Love Feasting and the Symbolic Power of Food in French Writing Each essay investigates the uses of food as a way to apprehend cultural meaning The essays presented provide theoretical templates for the study of food in a wide range of international film and literature
