Applying Dialogic Pedagogy Cynthia Z. Cohen, 2018-08-15 Recent academic research criticizes the effectiveness of traditional lecturing methods and instead shows the pedagogical effectiveness of active learning methods especially discussion based education Drawing on the dialogic writings of Bakhtin Freire and Habermas this study reviews the five primary themes cited in active learning research improvements in student concentration socialization in disciplinary norms scaffolding towards higher critical thinking inclusion of non traditional learning styles and reduction of student absenteeism Testing these findings in a discussion based undergraduate college education classroom this study finds significant improvements towards higher critical thinking skills increased student concentration and reduced student absenteeism However the study finds questionable effectiveness of discussion based teaching for socializing undergraduate college education students in disciplinary norms Positive Educational Approaches to Teaching Effectiveness and Student Well-being Hans Henrik Knoop, Mirna Nel, Sufen Chen, Rebecca Shankland, Llewellyn Ellardus Van Zyl, Matthew report looks at how technology and innovation achieves inclusive and sustainable industrial development ISID Its main finding is that ISID is feasible and technology can simultaneously serve all three dimensions of sustainability including economic social and environmental Rapid inclusive and sustainable industrialization can happen more frequently provided that policymakers firmly steer the industrialization process with opportune policies and avoid past mistakes In some cases the spread of technology has not materialized in concrete growth opportunities because of the lack of technological capabilities Innovation needs to be supported by interventions strengthening the process from invention to adoption as capabilities are developed and high tech manufacturing sectors are created seeing higher rates of sustainable growth
