Parents have a large impact on their children and how their life will turn out. Each parent will affect a different aspect of their child's life. Fathers tend to affect more of the physical attributes of a child and provide money for the family while mothers will help with the emotional side of a child's development. Having both parents present greatly aids in developing a more well-rounded child. When a family has both parents involved the family runs better as not all of the weight of raising an individual falls on one parent. Individuals with both parents engaged in their lives feel more confident and comfortable with themselves. Parents should not believe it is okay to leave a child. When a parent leaves a child because of their own choice or death, there are many negative physical, emotional, and psychological impacts which will result in the child's life. When a parent leaves or dies, there are many different physical, emotional, and psychological impacts on the children. One study shows that when the father is not present in a child's life this "inadequate family structure makes children more susceptible to drug use as a coping mechanism" (Davidson, "Life Without Father"). Without a father figure, some individuals seem lost and seek out different items or activities to try and fill the void. Also, without both parents in the house, the child would have more freedom since only one parent is responsible for them. This freedom allows for many doors to be opened for
