There's something about girls who disappear from view that gnaws at Ingrid, that makes her care more than she should, that makes her lose perspective and take unnecessary risks. It's Ingrid's first time in London; she's only in town to train the Metropolitan Police, so she needs some local knowledge. She is reluctantly paired with a suave, good-looking, and arrogant secret intelligence operative who leads her through the city's back alleys and corridors of power. He's charismatic and dynamic, but when his methods become dangerously unconventional, the two of them clash in more ways than one. FRESH DOUBT Madison Faber, a brilliant psychology student at a prestigious London college, has discovered her friend's body in a pool of blood. Now she's in police custody, being questioned for murder. Protesting her innocence, Faber fears the killer will target her next and persuades Ingrid to hunt him down. But the deeper
