Christian Register and Boston Observer, 1906      The Watchtower, 1928      Matthew: The Christbook, Matthew 1-12
Frederick Dale Bruner, 2004 Recognized as a masterly commentary when it first appeared Frederick Dale Bruner's study of Matthew is now available as a greatly revised and expanded two volume work the result of seven years of careful refinement enrichment and updating Through this commentary crafted especially for teachers pastors and Bible students Bruner aims to help God's people love what Matthew's Gospel says but Bruner's work is at once broadly historical and deeply theological It is historical in drawing extensively on great church teachers through the centuries and on the classical Christian creeds and confessions It is theological in that it unpacks the doctrines in each passage chapter and section of the Gospel Consciously attempting to bridge past and present Bruner asks both what Matthew's Gospel said to its first hearers and what it says to readers today As a result his commentary is profoundly relevant to contemporary congregations and to those who guide them Bruner's commentary is replete with lively verse by verse discussion of Matthew's text While each chapter expounds a specific topic or doctrine the book's format consists of a vivid original translation of the text followed by faithful exegesis and critical analysis a survey of historical commentary on the text and current applications of the text or theme under study In this revision Bruner continues to draw on the best in modern scholarship including recent work by W D Davies and Dale C Allison Jr by Ulrich Luz and by many others adding new voices to the reading of Matthew At the same time he cites the classic commentaries of Chrysostom Jerome Augustine Luther Calvin Bengel and the rest who like Bruner himself were not simply doctrinal teachers but also careful exegetes of Scripture Such breadth and depth of learning assure that Bruner's Matthew will remain as a reviewer for Interpretation wrote the most dog-eared commentary on the shelf but Volume 1 of Bruner's commentary is called The Christbook because the first twelve chapters of Matthew are focused on the nature and work of Christ As Bruner proceeds through these chapters he shows how Matthew presents step by step central themes of Christology Jesus coming chapters 1-4 his teaching 5-7 his miracles 8-9 his sermon on mission 10 and his person 11-12 Throughout the book there are also thoughtful discussions of significant topics such as baptism marriage Jewish Christian relations and heaven and hell Eminently readable rich in biblical insight and ecumenical in tone Bruner's two volume commentary on Matthew now stands among the best in the field      Everyone Will See the Salvation of God Lesław Daniel Chrupcała, 2015-04-01 T00:00:00+02:00 The volume comprises ten studies on Lukan theology relating especially with the theme of salvation but also with christology and kingdom of God in Luke Acts as well as with the author of the two volume work of Luke Luke the Jew Current Trajectories of Scholarship Jesus Christ Salvation and Kingdom of God For a Discussion on the Thematic Unity of Luke Acts Our Father Abraham and the Universal Promise of Salvation in the Lukan Writings The Lukan Story of Salvation as an Insight Re-reading Isaiah in Luke Acts The Law and the Kingdom of God in the Soteriology of St Luke Faith and Works in Luke The Case of Circumcision And the Lord turned A Lukan Feature in the Itinerant Behaviour

New Testament TransLine Michael Magill,2008-07-18 Second Edition The republishing of the New Testament TransLine has given me the opportunity to fix all the typos that have been brought to my attention I give thanks to all who helped by pointing out these things In addition I have produced the forthcoming Disciples Literal New Testament tentative title which is a simplified version of this book about one third its size It is the same translation found in this volume but now presented in paragraph format no outline with interpretive section headings and a few notes Moving the translation to paragraph format required changes to the punctuation and these are now incorporated into this volume as well Some improvements to the outline structure of The New Testament TransLine were also made as an outcome of viewing the text in paragraphs May God bless you as you study His Word and may God use these two works according to His good pleasure In contradiction to the tenor and direction of our current world the Word of God will stand forever as objective truth corresponding to true reality from God s point of view It is not truth for me or true because it works for me but it is truth from God and therefore truth for everyone Michael Magill April 2008 True Latter-Day Saints' Herald ,1912 The family magazine of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints The Guardian Index ,2003 The Epworth Herald ,1902 The Expositor's Bible Sir William Robertson Nicoll,1887 The Missionary Herald ,1904 Vols for 1828 1934 contain the Proceedings at large of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions Global Dictionary of Theology William A. Dyrness,Veli-Matti Kärkkäinen,2009-10-25 Theological dictionaries are foundational to any theological library But until now there has been no Global Dictionary of Theology a theological dictionary that presumes the contribution of the Western tradition but moves beyond it to embrace and explore a full range of global expressions of theology The Global Dictionary of Theology is inspired by the shift of the center of Christianity from the West to the Global South But it also reflects the increase in two way traffic between these two sectors as well as the global awareness that has permeated popular culture to an unprecedented degree The editorial perspective of the Global Dictionary of Theology is an ecumenical evangelicalism that is receptive to discovering new facets of truth through listening and conversation on a global scale Thus a distinctive feature of the Global Dictionary of Theology is its conversational approach Contributors have been called on to write in the spirit of engaging in a larger theological conversation in which alternative views are expected and invited William A Dyrness Veli Matti Kärkkäinen Juan F Martinez and Simon Chan edit approximately 250 articles written by over 100 contributors representing the global spectrum of theological perspectives Pastors theological teachers theological students and lay Christian leaders will all find the Global Dictionary of Theology to be a resource that unfolds new dimensions and reveals new panoramas of theological perspective and inquiry Here is a new launching point for doing theology in today's global context     Matthew R. Alan Culpepper,2022-03-01 In this new critical commentary for the New Testament Library series R Alan Culpepper sets the Gospel of Matthew in the context of the competing Jewish and early Christian voices of the first century bringing greater clarity to Matthew's own proclamation of the gospel and inviting readers to give up perhaps long held assumptions about the book In Culpepper's treatment Matthew emerges as a Gospel for a Jewish community distinguishing itself from the Pharisees on one side and other early Christian traditions and leaders especially Paul and his followers on the other side In this framework Matthew calls his community to faithful observance of the law a law observant mission to both Jews and Gentiles and repentance and the practice of forgiving in preparation for the coming judgment Accordingly Matthew takes readers back to an early period before the separation of Jewish Christians from the synagogues By taking seriously Matthew's Jewishness this volume also enables readers to hear the historical Jesus more clearly Excursuses on Matthew's social setting include Jesus as healer Sabbath observance Roman taxation the Pharisees the tithes ancient weddings and the Sanhedrin as well as many shorter units on Second Temple Judaism synagogues and first century Galilean society The New Testament Library series offers authoritative commentary on every book and major aspect of the New Testament providing fresh translations based on the best available ancient manuscripts critical portrayals of the historical world in which the books were created careful attention to their literary design and a theologically perceptive exposition of the biblical text The contributors are scholars of international standing The editorial board consists of C Clifton Black Princeton Theological Seminary John T Carroll Union Presbyterian Seminary and Susan E Hylen Candler School of Theology Emory University     The New Testament Dennis C. Duling,Norman Perrin,1994 The Third Edition of this respected text represents a major rewrite The authors have given thorough attention to the details of inclusive language while covering social historical and literary historical factors Coverage includes the synoptic gospels and Acts and the historical Jesus as the presupposition of the New Testament     The Sunday-school Times ,1887
