Female Madrasas in Pakistan Faiza Muhammad Din, 2023-06-20 This study sets out to explain and understand the worldview of students at Female madrasas FeM in Pakistan Beginning as an indigenous informal institute for female education at home FeM has evolved to country wide formal theological seminaries that award women graduate degrees in Islamic studies Since the 1970s state intervention and social engagement have influenced not only the structure of FeMs but their locations Attendance is from all socio economic strata of society A recent development especially in urban centers is the teaching of the state curriculum to enable young students to access mainstream education Public opinion is divided about the role of FeMs in society Some believe that FeMs confine women into the domestic realm others view FeMs as a move forward into modernity as they educate the least educated sectors of society The author uses the lens of language and gender to explore why such divergent views exist about FeMs Specifically language and vocabulary has served as a powerful factor for restricting women to their traditional roles Madrasas have a profound effect on Pakistani society at large as they respond to the immediate socio political and economic needs of the community In the last two decades many books were produced about male madrasas in Pakistan However one focusing on women s madrasas exclusively was needed because currently the number of female students enrolled in madrasas is higher than the male students This unique book is rooted in the authors experience of studying at an FeM She entered a madrasa with a yearning to be closer to God to know the book revealed to the Prophet Muhammad and to learn what he said and did A constant throughout her studies was the recognition that acquiring knowledge is one of the highest acts of righteousness according to the Prophet Muhammad *History of Madrasah Education, with Special Reference to Calcutta Madrasah and W.B.
