Munoz, 2023-10-31 Silver Medal in the Social Change and Social Justice Category 2024 Nautilus Book Awards Winner 2024 Choice Outstanding Academic Title Women working in the sciences face obstacles at virtually every step along their career paths From subtle slights to blatant biases deep systemic problems block women from advancing or push them out of science and technology entirely Women in Science Now examines solutions to this persistent gender gap offering new perspectives on how to make science more equitable and inclusive for all This book shares stories and insights of women from a range of backgrounds working in various disciplines illustrating the journeys that brought them to the sciences the challenges they faced along the way and the important contributions they have made to their fields Lisa M P Munoz combines these narratives with a wealth of data to illuminate the size and scope of the challenges women scientists face while highlighting research based solutions to help overcome these obstacles She presents groundbreaking studies in social psychology and organizational behavior that are informing novel approaches for combating historic and ongoing inequities Through a combined focus on personal experiences and social science research this timely book provides both a path toward greater gender equity and an inspiring vision of science and scientists

The Schenley Experiment

Jake Oresick, 2017-04-14 The Schenley Experiment is the story of Pittsburgh's first public high school a social incubator in a largely segregated city that was highly even improbably successful throughout its 156 year existence Established in 1855 as Central High School and reorganized in 1916 Schenley High School was a model of innovative public education and an ongoing experiment in diversity Its graduates include Andy Warhol actor Bill Nunn and jazz virtuoso Earl Hines and its prestigious academic program and pensions lured such teachers as future Pulitzer Prize winner Willa Cather The subject of investment as well as destructive neglect the school reflects the history of the city of Pittsburgh and provides a study in both the best and worst of urban public education practices there and across the Rust Belt Integrated decades before Brown v Board of Education Schenley succumbed to default segregation during the white flight of the 1970s it rose again to prominence in the late 1980s when parents camped out in six day long lines to enroll their children in visionary superintendent Richard C Wallace s reinvigorated school Although the historic triangular building was a cornerstone of its North Oakland neighborhood and a showpiece for the city of Pittsburgh officials closed the school in 2008 citing over 50 million in necessary renovations a controversial event that captured national attention Schenley alumnus Jake Oresick tells this story through interviews historical documents and hundreds of first person accounts drawn from a community indelibly tied to the school A memorable important work of local and educational history his book is a case study of desegregation magnet education and the changing nature and legacies of America s oldest public schools     The Country Gentleman ,1912     Foundation of Digital Badges and Micro-Credentials Dirk Ifenthaler,Nicole Bellin-Mularski,Dana-Kristin Mah,2016-06-29 This edited volume provides insight into how digital badges may enhance formal non formal and informal education by focusing on technical design issues including organizational requirements learning and instructional design as well as deployment It features current research exploring the theoretical foundation and empirical evidence of the utilization of digital badges as well as case studies that describe current practices and experiences in the use of digital badges for motivation learning and instruction in K 12 higher education workplace learning and further education settings     Future of STEM education: Multiple perspectives from researchers Subramaniam Ramanathan,Ida Ah Chee Mok,2023-03-28     The Annalist ,1913     English Mechanic and Mirror of Science and Art ,1919     Crusade for Education ,1962 A non fee placement journal describing verified professional openings in the United States and abroad for teachers librarians administrators and scientists Ulrich s Periodical directory 10th ed p 450     After Piketty Heather Boushey,J.
