and classroom teachers alike are looking for ways to integrate maker learning into their work in meaningful ways but they simply don't have the time capacity or resources to review, synthesize or adapt existing models into their own school systems. The Maker Playbook offers a vision and the tools needed to streamline the process including high impact strategies you can put directly into action to foster an inclusive maker learning environment. In these pages you'll find ready to use strategies and resources to guide learners in the design thinking maker learning process. With the Universal Design for Learning (UDL) Guidelines as a basis you'll get ideas for helping all students learn and guidance for developing the scaffolding to help all learners reach levels of higher order thinking and engagement. The book offers strategies that can be implemented on a personalized and systemic level to build a maker learning culture and program from the ground up. Highlights: Go Remote tips with each strategy to assist you in implementing the ideas in a virtual environment. Includes recommendations for prioritizing and choosing from the strategies provided to help with planning and implementation. Offers resources for engagement, representation, action and expression to improve accessibility and boost students' executive functioning skills. Includes QR codes and links to digital versions and templates for scaffolding learning to help you jump into action. Whether your school system has begun this journey and is looking for ways to enhance established maker learning and makerspaces or is ready to start laying the foundation for providing maker learning experiences for all learners, this book is designed to help educators make maker learning more accessible for all. Audience: K-12 educators and school leaders.
