Genres of Emergency Ayelet Ben-Yishai,2023-01-10 Genres of Emergency offers literary genre as a way to understand and negotiate the varied states of emergency and crisis that have become a fixture of our contemporary world Building on a critical study of the literature written during and about the State of Emergency declared by Prime Minister Indira Gandhi in India 1975-1977 the study establishes emergency and its genres as an important interpretative site an exceptionally violent episode marked as a one off crisis which also functions as a locus for an ongoing renegotiation of a modern polity and culture Reading a wide ranging archive of English language texts from prison memoir to popular magazine from high brow literary fiction to boilerplate thriller from the unrelentingly realistic to the mythically allegorical Genres of Emergency traces the tension between crisis and continuity that these genres mediate In addressing this tension the authors of Emergency fiction take seriously the genres in which they write and use them to mobilize literary conventions as political interventions More specifically these novels use the conventions of realism epic allegory and the thriller to reach back in time and across cultures and languages invoking past iterations of these genres and histories and anticipating those to come Combining literary criticism with cultural history Genres of Emergency thus has implications for the study of literary genre for the historical events that these genres recount and for understanding the politics of literary form A Fine Balance ,2020 The Fiction of Rohinton Mistry Jaydipsinh Dodiya,1998 Rohinton Mistry The Socio Political Novelist Has Emerged As A Formidable Writer On The World Literary Scene This Book Presents A Wide Spectrum Of Critical Responses To Mistry's Fiction Woman and Indian Modernity Nalini Natarajan,2002 Drawing from the large body of criticism on non European modernities in recent years this study targets what seems to be a discernable ambivalence in these studies The author seeks to investigate Twentieth Century India's complex negotiations with modernity with its usefulness as well as its threat at one of the most vulnerable points of definition the position of women Focusing on the disciplines or genres within which modernity is introduced the study uses the modern literary genre as well as intellectual disciplines Using these two domains of study an interdisciplinary framework is developed by looking at how narratives may be read in the light of other disciplines constructing the modern subject ideologies of manners and refinement prohibition ethnography ethnopsychology film property law and urban history The book argues that the possibilities in modernity are subject to a constant negotiation and become domesticated through the century especially in the area of gendering Gendering is revealed as a historically contingent process operating differently at different historical moments The analysis enables us to see the ideological gender constructions and contradictions behind modern versions of caste modern daughterhood modern citizenship and modern proprietorship      Family Matters Rohinton Mistry, 2003-02-25 Set in Bombay in the mid 1990s Family Matters tells a story of familial love and obligation of personal and political corruption of the demands of tradition and the possibilities for compassion Nariman Vakeel the patriarch of a small discordant family is beset by Parkinson's and haunted by memories of his past He lives with his two middle aged stepchildren Coomy bitter and domineering and her brother Jal mild mannered and acquiescent But the burden of the illness worsens the already strained family relationships Soon their sweet tempered half sister Roxana is forced to assume sole responsibility for her bedridden father And Roxana's husband besieged by financial worries devises a scheme of deception involving his eccentric employer at a sporting goods store setting in motion a series of events that leads to the narrative's moving outcome Family Matters has all the richness the gentle humour and the narrative sweep that have earned Mistry the highest of accolades around the world      Triveni ,2003      The Bulletin ,2002
