Irish History and the Irish Question (Classic Reprint) Goldwin Smith, 2015-06-30 Excerpt from Irish History and the Irish Question A long summer was spent by me in that loveliest of all parks the Phoenix Park as the guest of Edward Cardwell then Chief Secretary and real head of the Irish government Under Cardwell's roof the Irish Question was fully discussed by able men Robert Lowe among the number But I had a still greater advantage in constant and lasting intercourse with such friends as Lord Chancellor O'Hagan Sir Alexander Macdonald the head of the Education Department and other leading Irish Liberals of the moderate school ardent patriots and thoroughgoing reformers though opposed to violence and disruption To the teachings of these men in dealing with the Irish Question I have always looked back for my best guidance I did what I could generally to acquaint myself with the country and its people I had the opportunity of seeing something of Maynooth as the guest of its excellent principal in that day At that time there was rather a lull in the agrarian war but religious antagonism was still marked About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Great Britain and the Irish Question 1800-1922 Paul Adelman, Robert D.
