Miranda Writes Honor Justice:

Miranda Writes, Honor & Justice Frank Santorsola, 2018-01-07 New York Detective Frank Santorsola had an affinity for undercover work and soon found himself working deep cover successfully infiltrating the Lucchese crime family under the cover name of Frank Miranda. Miranda is tasked to gather evidence in an international heroin smuggling case of pure heroin from the Middle East into the New York metropolitan area. His informant Mike Baraka claimed he had been falsely arrested, indicted, and convicted for a crime he did not commit. He turns to the only person who believes him, Frank Miranda. Miranda develops a tabooed friendship with Baraka and realizes he will need to make choices that are uncomfortable, struggling between department expectations and what he believes is morally wrong. It's a surgical look into the very essence of the criminal justice system, exposing the corrupt nature of an institution and the political powers that run it. This is a gripping story of challenges, frustrations, anger, and redemption.

Critical Theory: Rituals, Pedagogies and Resistance Peter McLaren, 2022-03-28 This collection of essays incorporates some of the most important and longstanding foundational texts in education developed by the leading educational neo-Gramscian social theorist Peter McLaren. The volume provides a much necessary framework for understanding more precisely not only the historical and philosophical foundations for McLaren's ideas but even more importantly, it unpacks a clear understanding of the dynamics of ideological production, framing the epistemicidal nature of capitalist schools. The chapters provide state-of-the-art approaches grounded in both Marxist social theory and post-critical sensibilities. They show the unique opportunities provided by critical theoretical approaches towards revolutionary pedagogies which are crucial to address the current challenges one is facing locally, nationally, and internationally. Critical Theory: Rituals, Pedagogies and Resistance speaks to the current challenges we face as humanity, not only situating them historically but also securitizing the role that our educational institutions, curriculum matrixes, and teacher education programs have played in such social havoc. It provides crucial insights not only to help a better understanding of the accomplishments produced by the critical educational and curriculum river in the struggle against the educational and curriculum epistemicide but also to help explore alternative ways responsive to the world's endless epistemological difference and diversity. While the future of our field needs to go beyond Peter McLaren's intellectual thesaurus, it cannot certainly avoid going through him. The itinerant curriculum theory and the ICTheorists are conscious about that. Jo o M Paraskeva, Professor of Educational Leadership and Policy Studies, University of Strathclyde.

Miranda Writes, Honor & Justice Frank Santorsola, Jeffrey W. Wood, 2014-12-04 As told by a deep undercover investigator, this is a gripping story of challenges, frustrations, anger, and redemption. Written in the detective's voice, this book takes you behind the scenes of a major case investigation, revealing the dangerous choices made and the personal sacrifices needed.
