Joy Of Mans Desiring By Jean Giono:

Joy of Man's Desiring Jean Giono, 2010-03-16 Peasant civilization possesses as a gift human qualities which philosophical civilizations spend centuries first defining then desiring and finally losing Jean Giono A true forebear of magical realism French author Jean Giono created men and women rooted in the folklore of provincial France In this beautiful new edition of the original Que Ma Joie Demeure literally That My Joy Remain he tells the tale of a farmer couple in Haute Provence who find that the spark has somehow gone missing from their lives One day a stranger arrives who helps them discover how to rekindle their connection The stranger tells them Youth is neither strength nor a supple body nor even youth as you conceive of it Rather youth is the passion for the impractical the useless The couple with this guidance from the stranger include friends and neighbors on their journey back to individual and collective happiness They plant fields of flowers a meadow of grain just for the birds and they set their horses free With a poet's grace and imagination Giono weaves a grand story of the earth and of passion of men and women animals and weather of the magic we now call the laws of nature

Joy of Man's Desiring Jean Giono, 1999 A novel of provincial France follows Jourdan a farmer completely in touch with the wonders of nature

Ecopoetics of Reenchantment Bénédicte Meillon, 2022-11-07 Ecopoetics of Reenchantment Liminal Realism and Poetic Echoes of the Earth tackles the reenchantment process at work in a part of contemporary ecoliterature that is marked by the resurfacing of the song of the earth topos and of Gaia images Focusing on the postmodernist braiding of various indigenous and ecofeminist ontologies close readings of the animistic and totemic dimensions of the stories at hand lead to the theorizing of liminal realism a mode that shares much with magical realism but that is approached through an ecopoetic lens specifically working an interspecies kind of magic situating readers in between human and other than human worlds This book promotes a worldview based on relationships of reciprocity and symbiosis It restores our capacity for wonder together with our sensitive intelligence Liminal realism adopts a stance in between scientific mythical and poetic worldviews as it calls attention to the soundscapes odorscapes feelscapes and landscapes of the world This monograph offers an original transdisciplinary and cross Atlantic take on ecopoetics as it straddles the two academic worlds and sparks a conversation between artworks theories and studies emerging from the English speaking world as well as from Francophone contexts Entangling the materiality of language back within the flesh of the world this book and the texts under study provide insight into the fundamentally sympoietic dimension of ecopoiesis

Historical Dictionary of French Literature John Flower, 2013-01-17 Almost all of us know French literature even if we don't know French because it is probably the second largest and certainly the most translated into English And even if we don't read we would have seen film and television versions think Count of Monte Cristo and even a musical rendition Les Mis So this is a particularly interesting volume in the literature series since it covers French literature from the earliest times to the present It is also a particularly rich literature espousing every genre from poetry to novel to biography to drama and adopting every style including realism and surrealism and expressing the views of all classes and political stands with recently strong feminist and gay strains Obviously the core dictionary section includes among its panoply of often substantial and detailed entries hundreds of authors dozens of significant works the various styles mentioned above and many others events that have impacted literature such as the Dreyfus Affair and the Algerian War and literary prizes The chronology manages to cover about 1 200 years of literary output And the introduction sets it all out neatly from one historical and literary period to the next The bibliography broken down by period and author directs us to further reading in both French and English

The Books in My Life Henry Miller, 2016-08-25 In this unique work Henry Miller gives an utterly candid and self revealing account of the reading he did during his formative years Some writers attempt to conceal the literary influences which have shaped their thinking but not Henry Miller In The Books in My Life he shares the thrills of discovery that many kinds of books have brought to a keenly curious and questioning mind Some of Miller's favorite writers are the giants whom most of us revere authors such as Dostoevsky Boccaccio Walt Whitman James Joyce Thomas Mann Lao Tse To them he brings fresh and penetrating insights But many are lesser known figures Krishnamurti the prophet sage the French contemporaries Blaise Cendrars and Jean Giono Richard Jeffries who wrote The Story of My Heart the Welshman John Cowper Powys and scores of others The Books in My Life contains some fine autobiographical chapters too Miller describes his boyhood in Brooklyn when he devoured the historical stories of G A Henty and the romances of Rider Haggard He tells of the men and women whom he regards as living books Lou Jacobs W E B DuBois Elizabeth Gurley Flynn and others He offers his reminiscences of the New York Theatre in the early 1900s including plays such as Alias Jimmy Valentine and Nellie the Beautiful Cloak Model And finally in Miller's best vein of humor he provides a satiric chapter on bathroom reading In an appendix Miller lists the hundred books that have influenced him most
