Leaders should not be defined simply by their popularity but by their willingness to take risks, by their ability to share credit, the strength to admit errors, and their willingness to pick themselves up and keep leading and motivating, and partnering for the broader good.

Leadership is not about quick-fixes, cleaver slogans, about dividing citizens, or about polling numbers.

Sometimes leadership in public office means telling citizens what they need to know rather than what they want to hear. Sometimes you must stand alone. But to
