while he was studying he founded together with other students a club and a magazine that started a struggle against the magnates of the university for the purpose of improving the teaching methodology When the struggle moved from the schools to the parliament Alberto decided to quit Italy and went to France He spent one year in Lyon as tutor in the Franco Canadienne college and three years in Nice teaching Italian language and culture in the Lycee Massena Ecole Normale Dante Alighieri Society and the Chamber of Commerce While he was teaching he also attended courses of French language and literature at the university and prepared himself for the exams in the Orientale of Naples During summer months he went to Spain in order to improve his knowledge of Spanish language and literature attending courses at the University of Saragoza in Jaca In France like in Spain he was admired and appreciated as a young man able to resolve any intricate matter easily and creatively He wanted to live his life intensely without ceasing to love his girlfriend with all his heart He had experienced several loving adventures that made him fall into a deep moral and spiritual crisis Alberto said I do not know anymore who I am I act against my own principles Influenced by the French culture he understood that those principles he called his own were indeed not his but only principles accepted by him or transmitted to him by his family his school his church his town Living in Paris Alberto understood that the only valid principles in our lives were those that we created or accepted after careful consideration From now on Alberto will work hard to create his own principles and to resolve his moral and spiritual crisis In order to succeed said Alberto it is not enough to say it you must do it Being equipped with a strong dose of determination self assurance and a lot of energy he began to discard all those principles in which he did not believe anymore retaining those in which he still believed and at the same time created new ones He said There are some principles that must be saved because they represent the foundation and the understanding of our Western civilization By now Alberto was aware of being what he always wanted to become a young man hungry to accomplish what he had initiated After three years of separation Alberto went to the United States in order to see Enza his girlfriend and he decided to marry her He returned to Nizza with Enza They had a first son They returned to Italy He completed his studies getting a masters degree in French language and literature and went to live in the United States Needing to support his family he started to work in a bank and he remained there for thirty five years spending the first two achieving an associate degree in business administration The author tells the life of Alberto from infancy to youth In the entire novel there are many descriptions of landscapes in particular of his native town Alberto directly or indirectly lived the horrors of the two world wars the occupation of his town first by the Germans then by the Allies He visited Cassino a city that had been razed to the ground by the bombers during the Second World War Alberto also lived through the Fascist period and the political awakening of the great masses and their revolutionary agitations for the occupa

Memoires of a Travelholic Carole J. Kuhn, 2013-06-17 Dr Kuhn has written a book about her life and travels as a foreign language teacher In essence it is a book of memories autobiographical in nature She describes many of the 45 trips in detail but she also groups many of the trips together In 1973 when she began taking students to Europe she had a good background of working with students and knowing how they think and act or so she thought There is an interesting list of things to take where to put the items where they can be bought and the prices of the items There is also a list of personal rules and regulations that were required of all students They were called Mademoiselles Rules or Mlles Rules Then there is a comprehensive list of Trip Procedures giving all the do s and dont s of traveling Students were allowed to sample beer and alcohol as long as their parents had signed a permission slip but students will always try to outthink the teacher and circumvent the procedures Dr Kuhn describes many of the things that went wrong on both student trips and adult trips along with things that didn t seem funny at the time but in retrospect seem humorous today Leonardo Da Vinci, an Exhibition of His Scientific Achievements International Business Machines Corporation.
