d'Orient Bertrandon de la Broquière, 2023 The Latin Qur'an, 1143-1500 Cándida Ferrero Hernández, John Tolan, 2021-10-25 In 1143 Robert of Ketton produced the first Latin translation of the Qur'an This translation extant in 24 manuscripts was one of the main ways in which Latin European readers had access to the Muslim holy book Yet it was not the only means of transmission of Quranic stories and concepts to the Latin world there were other medieval translations into Latin of the Qur'an and of Christian polemical texts composed in Arabic which transmitted elements of the Qur'an often in a polemical mode The essays in this volume examine the range of medieval Latin transmission of the Qur'an and reaction to the Qur'an by concentrating on the manuscript traditions of medieval Qur'an translations and anti-Islamic polemics in Latin We see how the Arabic text was transmitted and studied in Medieval Europe We examine the strategies of translators who struggled to find a proper vocabulary and syntax to render Quranic terms into Latin at times showing miscomprehensions of the text or willful distortions for polemical purposes These translations and interpretations by Latin authors working primarily in twelfth and thirteenth century Spain were the main sources of information about Islam for European scholars until well into the sixteenth century when they were printed reused and commented This volume presents a key assessment of a crucial chapter in European understandings of Islam Crusades Benjamin Z. Kedar, Jonathan Phillips, Jonathan Riley-Smith, 2016-08-12 Crusades covers seven hundred years from the First Crusade 1095-1102 to the fall of Malta 1798 and draws together scholars working on theatres of war their home fronts and settlements from the Baltic to Africa and from Spain to the Near East and on theology law literature art numismatics and economic social political and military history Routledge publishes this journal for The Society for the Study of the Crusades and the Latin East Particular attention is given to the publication of historical sources in all relevant languages narrative homiletic and documentary in trustworthy editions
