Leadership on the Line Ronald A. Heifetz, Martin Linsky, 2002 Every day in every facet of our lives opportunities to lead call out to us At work and at home in our local communities and in the global village the chance to make a difference beckons Yet often we hesitate For all its passion and promise for all its excitement and rewards leading is risky dangerous work Why Because real leadership the kind that surfaces conflict challenges long held beliefs and demands new ways of doing things causes pain And when people feel threatened they take aim at the person pushing for change As a result leaders often get hurt both personally and professionally In Leadership on the Line renowned leadership authorities Ronald A. Heifetz and Marty Linsky marshal a half century of combined teaching and consulting experience to show that it is possible to put ourselves on the line respond effectively to the risks and live to celebrate our efforts With compelling examples including the presidents of countries and the presidents of organizations everyday managers and prominent activists politicians and parents the authors illustrate proven strategies for surviving and thriving amidst the dangers of leading Getting on the balcony stepping back to get perspective while remaining fiercely engaged Thinking politically keeping the opposition close but watching your allies too Orchestrating the conflict using stress productively to work the issues Giving the work back putting the responsibility on those who need to make the change Holding steady maintaining your focus while taking the heat The authors also address often neglected aspects of leadership such as how to manage your personal vulnerabilities and how to anchor yourself and sustain your spirit through tough times Both uplifting and practical this essential book enables each of us to lead courageously and confidently without losing ourselves
