Bureau of Ships,      The Journal of the Armed Forces, 1872      Memoirs of the Stuart Horse Artillery Battalion Robert J. Trout, 2008 Until recently it has been difficult for anyone with an interest in the Army of Northern Virginia's horse artillery which served under legendary cavalry commander J E B Stuart to envision what the men of the battalion endured With the publication in 2002 of Robert Trout's seminal book Galloping Thunder The Stuart Horse Artillery Battalion the endeavors of the unit were rescued from obscurity In Memoirs of the Stuart Horse Artillery Battalion Trout provides readers with complete versions of three important primary documents written by soldiers of the battalion Lt Lewis T Nunnelee's history of Moorman's Battery is based on a seven volume diary that Nunnelee kept during the war and features near daily entries of the battery's actions. The History of Hart's Battery as told by Maj James F Hart, Dr Levi C Stephens, Louis Sherfese, and Charles H Schwing is as Trout puts it, a cannon of a different caliber. It recounts in broader terms the battery's history from its inception before the war to its surrender as the last horse artillery in the field. The authors offer rare glimpses into the development of tactics learned from the school of the battlefield. Finally, Louis Sherfese's Reminiscences of A Color Bearer fleshes out many of the stories in the history that he co-wrote with Hart and his fellow soldiers. Filled with short vignettes, it offers a behind-the-scenes look at the battery in action. Together, these rich documents provide welcome insights into the day-to-day experiences of the often overlooked Confederate horse artillery which played an important role in cementing Stuart's reputation as one of the most outstanding cavalry commanders in the Civil War.
