The New Digital Education Policy Landscape Cristóbal Cobo,Axel Rivas,2023-06-16 This book provides a scholarly investigation of the new era we have entered in which platforms can replace or profoundly modify educational systems and questions the role of educational policy in this new stage of platform based digital technology The contributors explore important questions around who controls these transformations what form they are taking what the balance between national education policies and Big Tech education solutions should be as well as whether there should be a public platform in every education system that digitally expands learning and what evidence there is that learning will be more efficient using these platforms The first part provides a selection of empirical studies on the new digital educational policy and an analysis of the real opportunities and concerns that governments face in this regard while the second offers reflections on the processes of platformization and the role of the state in this new digital world Uniquely examining the temporal evolution of these changes and taking a theoretical political and epistemological approach it crucially opens pathways for dialogical and diverse critical thinking about profound problems and possibilities Gathering purposeful thinking that creates space for design solutions and rethinking educational systems considering these new technological artefacts it will appeal to researchers and specialists in the fields of educational technology and educational policy

Advancing Online Teaching Kevin Kelly,Todd D. Zakrajsek,2023-07-03 The goal of teaching online is fundamentally the same as teaching face to face facilitating the learning of all students to the greatest extent possible This book differs from other books on online teaching in that in the process of offering guidance on course design and planning developing outcomes and appropriate engaging activities managing the workload and assessment the authors pay explicit attention throughout to the distinct and diverse needs of students and offer effective strategies to accommodate them in a comprehensive and inclusive way by using the principles of Universal Design for Learning By following those principles from the outset when planning a course all students will benefit and most particularly those whom the research shows have the greatest achievement gaps when taking online courses males first generation and low income students those from underrepresented minority groups the academically underprepared students with disabilities and those with limited online access or lacking readiness for online learning Beyond good planning and design Kelly and Zakrajsek offer ideas for creating inclusive course environments and activities such as using culturally appropriate content and making it accessible in multiple formats They also share methods to foster faculty learner interaction and increase personal connections with students and among students through group activities or learning communities which are so critical to motivation and success Faculty new to online teaching as well as more experienced readers will find a wealth of practical guidance on developing and honing both fully online and blended courses and as importantly a wealth of proven ideas to help the new generation of students with diverse needs to succeed Electronics Buying Guide ,2006 Graphical User Interface Design and
