Midland Michigan Voters Guide:

Congressional Voting Guide Victor W. Bosnich,1994 Congressional Voting Guide ,1992 A guide to the voting records of the 102nd Congress on the key measures and amendments of the decade 1982 1992 compiling House and Senate voting measures voting records percentage evaluations indicating the degree to which each member voted with the President precise text amendments and brief profiles of each member of Congress Census of Michigan, June 1, 1894, Instructions to Enumerators Michigan. Department of State,1893 God at the Grassroots 2016 Mark J. Rozell,Clyde Wilcox,2017-11-02 In God at the Grassroots 2016 The Christian Right in American Politics a distinguished group of political scientists many of whom have been studying the Christian Right for more than two decades assess the 2016 elections from the standpoint of religious conservative activism These elections more than any that they have analyzed best tell the story of the resilience of this movement and its enduring importance The contributors address the evolution of the religious right movement for more than two decades and focus primarily on the movement s role in the 2016 elections The first section examines the broader national context with chapters on the Republican nomination campaign the general election and the relationship between the religious right and the tea party The second section comprises state specific chapters focusing primarily on the crucial states in the 2016 presidential contest They conclude with lessons learned from the studies of the religious right in the elections from 1994 through 2016 and address directions for continued research on the subject Contributions by Joseph Cella Kimberly H Conger Matthew Corrigan Paul A Djupe Christopher P Gilbert James L Guth Donna R Hoffman Ted G Jelen Alexander Jensen Christopher W Larimer Mikael Pelz Sucheta Pyakuryal Carin Robinson Mark J Rozell Corwin E Smidt Oran P Smith Kenneth D Wald Clyde Wilcox and Abigail Zofchak Time ,1996 Michigan Roads and Pavements ,1922 Michigan School Moderator ,1893 *Catalog of Copyright Entries. constituents These relationships are important indicators of people s thoughts regarding the current performance of their legislatures and legislators but they tell us nothing about attitudes toward the institution and its organizational characteristics This study offers a unique perspective on what American voters have historically thought about legislatures as organizations and legislators as representatives Rather than focusing on responses to surveys that ask respondents how they rate the current performance of lawmakers and legislatures this study leverages the most significant difference between national and state politics the existence of ballot propositions in the latter At the national level Americans have never had any say over Congress s structure rules or procedures In contrast at the state level they have had ample opportunities over the course of more than two centuries to shape their state legislatures The data examined here look at how people have voted on more than 1 500 state ballot propositions targeting a wide array of legislative organizational and parliamentary features By linking the votes on these measures with the public debates preceding them this study documents not only how American viewed various aspects of their legislatures but also whether their opinions held constant or shifted over time The findings reported paint a more nuanced picture of Americans attitudes toward legislatures than the prevailing one derived from survey research When presented with legislative reform measures on which concrete choices were offered and decisions on them had to be made the analyses presented here reveal that counter to the conventional wisdom that people loved their representatives but hated the legislature voters usually took charitable positions toward the institution while harboring skeptical attitudes about lawmakers motives and behaviors
