

MIDSUMMER NIGHT

A woman with blonde hair, wearing a white nightgown, is shown from the chest up, floating or drifting in a dreamlike, ethereal space. She has her eyes closed and her hands are raised, palms facing forward, as if she is in a state of trance or dreaming. The background is a deep blue, filled with soft, glowing clouds and a large, bright full moon. Numerous small, white stars are scattered across the sky. The overall atmosphere is magical and serene.

Shakespeare William Shakespeare, 1878 Passion for Place Book II Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2013-06-29 Among the multiple subliminal passions that inspire our life in innumerable ways literature shows us one that seems to play a particularly penetrating role in human concerns This passion which Tymieniecka calls an esoteric passion finds its projection and crystallization in space it is the esoteric passion for space This subliminal passion investigated through literature allows the philosopher to reach beneath the fallacious separations of nature humanness and the cultural world restoring the wholeness of experience that has become lost in the artificial one sidedness of contemporary approaches confined to language as they are The elemental passion for place is investigated here in the literary fruits of creative imagination Unravelling from the very depths of the primogenital onto poietic unfolding of life the passion for place is revealed as projecting into the flux of life it is a station of life significance This collection presents papers from two conferences of the International Society of Phenomenology and Literature held in Cambridge MA in 1993 4 *The Complete Works of William Shakespeare: A midsummer-nights dream.
