ESSAY # 1: Women in China at the beginning of the 20th century

China was suffering from a great loss in the beginning of the 20th century, since half of its citizens were not able to contribute to the country. The society at that time was male-dominated, so though women comprised almost half of the total population, they had actually a very little part to play in uplifting the country economically, socially and intellectually. Nevertheless, Chinese women should not be blamed for that. They had their own reasons for being so unproductive, which they later tried to overcome successfully.

Firstly, they were physically confined. This takes us back to the practice of foot binding in China, which started early in the 10th century by a prince who loved the small "lily feet" of his concubine. "Lily feet" were considered very dainty, beautiful, and a symbol of gentility and high-class. They could fit into three
