Reliability and Statistics in Transportation and Communication Igor Kabashkin, Irina Yatskiv, Olegas Prentkovskis, 2021-02-06 This book reports on cutting edge theories and methods for analyzing complex systems such as transportation and communication networks and discusses multi disciplinary approaches to dependability problems encountered when dealing with complex systems in practice The book presents the most noteworthy methods and results discussed at the International Conference on Reliability and Statistics in Transportation and Communication RelStat which took place remotely from Riga Latvia on October 14 17 2020 It spans a broad spectrum of topics from mathematical models and design methodologies to software engineering data security and financial issues as well as practical problems in technical systems such as transportation and telecommunications and in engineering education The Unresolved National Question in South Africa Edward Webster, Karin Pampallis, John Mawbey, Jeremy Cronin, 2017-03-01 This volume examines the way in which various strands of left thought have addressed the National Question The re emergence of debates on the decolonisation of knowledge has revived interest in the National Question which began over a century ago and remains unresolved Tensions that were suppressed and hidden in the past are now being openly debated Despite this the goal of one united nation living prosperously under a constitutional democracy remains elusive This edited volume examines the way in which various strands of left thought have addressed the National Question especially during the apartheid years and goes on to discuss its relevance for South Africa today and in the future Instead of imposing a particular understanding of the National Question the editors identified a number of political traditions and allowed contributors the freedom to define the question as they believed appropriate in other words to explain what they thought was the Unresolved National Question This has resulted in a rich tapestry of interweaving perceptions The volume is structured in two parts The first examines four foundational traditions Marxism Leninism the Colonialism of a Special Type thesis the Congress tradition the Trotskyist tradition and Africanism The second part explores the various shifts in the debate from the 1960s onwards and includes chapters on Afrikaner nationalism ethnic issues black consciousness feminism workerism and constitutionalism The editors hope that by revisiting the debates not popularly known among the scholarly mainstream this volume will become a catalyst for an enriched debate on our identity and our future Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience Unisa Latin American Report ,2005 The African Book Publishing Record ,2013
