Lesbian Come Walk With Me:

Come, Walk with Me Elaine Ruth Pope, 2007-03-20 The author asks as you read this prison reform book interlaced with small parts of her own personal involvement that you overlook the grammar punctuation and sentence structure errors because she did not and does not consider herself a writer But she felt this story had to be told to inform society there is another view of prison life on the inside rather than only the stories reported by the media and the justice system itself Therefore what you are about to read will take you on a journey into the chilling hellhole of prison and you will find it is not at all what you expected it to be Quite the contrary it is a house of dreams for souls who are victims themselves Victims of abuse while living on the outside in society and victims of abuse by the penal system during incarceration In addition they are victims of drug and alcohol related incidents or bad judgment and in more cases than we can imagine of wrongful conviction Elaine was almost oblivious to the insane walk two sets of remote controlled steel gates a search room a 70 foot fenced walkway topped with rolls of ice steel razor wire another set of barred gates but this time she was conducted straight to the hospital Every time she made this trip she was appalled at the madness behind the disproportionate security It appeared to her the perimeter towers rifles steel topped clubs pepper spray and stun guns strapped to the hips of every guard were security enough against men who were shackled behind these cement walls p 17 Elaine was alone in Starke Florida She had driven from Michigan alone to meet Horace and to help him with his appeals and also when the time was right to become his wife During the five months since her arrival from Michigan she had made a few acquaintances but hadn't had sufficient time to make a good friend Horace had been her only friend She had neither friends nor family to stand by her side to give comfort and solace as Horace slowly died a suffering death But why Why would a woman who was considered an average societal wife and mother leave family and home even divorcing to marry a man on death row Why enter into an environment where personal diminishment is the daily experience And especially perplexing why enter into a relationship with a man whose impending death was possibly the only future Why did Elaine do this Did She have a choice It seemed somehow her whole life had prepared her in a special way to follow this course as if a plot had been written Did she feel a martyr Did she feel a fool Did she feel courageous Elaine truly doesn't have answers to any of these questions yet one thing she knows about herself p 21 Even though Horace worked hard in the orange groves all day and led a Honky Tonk band at night in several Lounges in Bartow and Eloise it didn't matter what he could have been His reality was he was marked His being part Japanese at that prejudicial time and Native American as well he was prejudged and condemned by an absurd record of poverty and ethnicity Whether he was laboring in the groves or strumming his guitar playing in lounges at night Horace was a wandering man with a wandering heart in search of fulfillment And for this honky tonk heartbreaker unfortunately the worst was about to come for he was one more person who would not be touched by the American Dream but was about to become part of America's nightmare page 29 The Court If I can assure you that I would make well I will
