Doris Lessing, The Golden Notebook - an analysis Sabine Picout, 2012-02-13 Presentation Handout from the year 2004 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Literature Works grade sehr gut University of Innsbruck

Translationswissenschaft language English abstract Another important characteristic feature which slips into Lessing's novel repeatedly is the new way of treating psychological problems Anna undergoes repeatedly psychotherapy and sees her psychotherapist nicknamed Mother Sugar In the course of her treatment the interpretation of her dreams is very important which shows us the influence of Freud and especially of C G Jung with his theory of psychoanalysis A central theme in The Golden Notebook are Anna's doubts about the meaningfulness of literature Structure time scheme and interpretation chart of the action Doris Lessing wanted to leave behind the form of the conventional realistic novel Therefore she chose such an extraordinary construction The skeleton is the short novel Free Women which could stand for itself and is some kind of frame story which is divided into five sections by four notebooks The notebooks are told by Anna Wulf the main figure of Free Women each notebook focusing on a different kind of experience The Black Notebook is about Anna's time in South Africa and about her best seller Frontiers of War A Study Guide for Doris Lessing's The Golden Notebook Gale, Cengage

Learning, 2015-03-13 A Study Guide for Doris Lessing's The Golden Notebook excerpted from Gale's acclaimed Novels for Students This concise study guide includes plot summary character analysis author biography study questions historical context suggestions for further reading and much more For any literature project trust Novels for Students for all of your research needs The Cruft of Fiction David Letzler, 2017-06 A 2017 Choice Outstanding Academic Title What is the strange appeal of big books The mega novel a genre of erudite tomes with encyclopedic scope has attracted wildly varied responses from fanatical devotion to trenchant criticism Looking at intimidating mega novel masterpieces from The Making of Americans to 2666 David Letzler explores reader responses to all the seemingly random irrelevant pointless and derailing elements that comprise these mega novels elements that he labels cruft after the computer science term for junk code In The Cruft of Fiction Letzler suggests that these books are useful tools to help us understand the relationship between reading and attention While mega novel text is often intricately meaningful or experimental sometimes it is just excessive and pointless On the other hand mega novels also contain text that though appearing to be cruft turns out to be quite important Letzler posits that this cruft requires readers to develop a sophisticated method of attentional modulation allowing one to subtly distinguish between text requiring focused attention and text that must be skimmed or even skipped to avoid processing failures The Cruft of Fiction shows how the attentional maturation prompted by reading mega novels can help manage the information overload that increasingly characterizes contemporary life Literature and the Writer, 2016-08-09 Literature and the Writer was first conceived with the hope the essays would shed light on several dimensions of the authorial craft It was the hope of the editor that the selected essays would examine not only writers choice of vocabulary but also their deliberate selection of grammatical constructions and word order and their seamless weaving together of plots and imagery Moreover the analyses would also draw attention to how the writing process impacts the development of characters and the formulation of thematic strands in fiction Thus a wide variety of authors are deliberately selected to give the text depth writers of popular fiction as well as modern classics are included and contrasts are established between traditional writers and those who prefer to follow experimental trends Modernists are set against postmodernists absurdists vs realists minority ethnicities vs majority cultures and dominant genders appear in contrast to subordinated ones Clearly the major tenet of the collection is that the writing profession provides an unending dilemma that deserves to be explored in more detail as readers try to determine how authorial voices confuse while simultaneously elucidating their audience how texts are constructed by authors and yet deconstructed by the very words they choose to include how silence functions as inaudible yet audible discourse and how authorial self concept shapes not only itself but is also echoed in the fictional characters writers who appear in the texts
